ON THE COVER: Junior Ah You, Arizona State defensive end, is a native of American Samoa who played high school ball in Late, Hawaii. The "Hawaiian Punch," as his bruising treatment of opposing backs is known around Tempe, helped the Sun Devils to an 11-0 season in 1970. Ah You has twice been named all-WAC and was the outstanding defensive player in last year's Peach Bowl game. In one game last season, he recovered two fumbles and intercepted a pass—all in the space of five minutes—to set up two scores. Punishing tackles and the pass rush are his specialties on the field. The 6-2, 220-pound senior is a physical education major at Arizona State. He and his wife, Almira Mapuana, have named their son Kingsley.

CLIMBING THE WALL, as the frustration saying goes, was a words and picture description of Indiana's 1-9 season in 1970. Hoosier quarterback Ted McNulty appears to be driven up the wall by Colorado tackle Bruce Smith (61) during 16-9 loss to Buffs.

No Rest For Defensive Masterminds, Now Facing Year Of The Running Back

By DICK HERBERT

Public Relations Director, The American Football Coaches Association President, Football Writers' Association of America

College Football, 1971, should go down in history as the "Year of the Running Back," unless the masterminds of defense devise ways to stop the triple option, or veer offenses which move the ball up and down the field at a near-record pace.

The exciting 1970 warfare was hailed at the "Year of the Quarterback" because of a star-studded array of talented under-center men across the country. Jim Plunkett of Stanford proved to be "the best gun in the West" in emerging with the Heisman Trophy signifying him as Player of the Year after a season-long duel with the seldom-miss marksman of Mississippi, Archie Manning, and Notre Dame's multi-talented Joe Theismann.

EVEN SO, THE TOP THREE did nothing to dim the quarterbacking lustre of the likes of Dan Pastorini at Santa Clara; Bob Parker of the Air Force Academy; Arizona State's Joe Spagnola; Leo Hart of Duke; Scott Hunter from Alabama; UCLA's Dennis Dummit; Lynn Dickey from Kansas State; Chuck Hixson of SMU; Bill Montgomery of Arkansas; Frank Harris from Boston College; Ohio State's Rex Kern; Buddy Lee of LSU; Michigan's Don Moorhead and Charlie Richards of Richmond.

They've all completed their eligibility though, representing perhaps the greatest graduation class of quarterbacks in the 102-year history of college football. And while a record number of teams are turning to new hands on the throttle, 1971 might well be the season of immergence for the stars who advance the ball by land.

Dick Herbert ended 35 years as sports editor, the last 29 at the Raleigh News and Observer, in March to become the first Director of Public Relations for the American Football Coaches Association.

Following graduation from Duke University in 1935, the Harrisburg, Pa., native put in six years with the Rocky Mount, N.C., Evening Telegram and one as sports information director at North Carolina State before going to the News and Observer.

A man for all sports, Herbert is a past president of the United States Basketball Writers Association. He founded their "Tipoff" newsletter and edited it for 12 years.

From all sections of the football world come reports of strong, elusive, durable runners who consistently gain more than 100 yards a game.

THE RINGLEADER, of course, is Ed Marinaro of Cornell, who led the nation's ball carriers the past two seasons and undertakes his senior year with an 18-game average of 157.4 yards per afternoon—second only to the record 164.4-yard rate maintained by O. J. Simpson in 19 games at USC.

More than Marino is needed of course, to make this the "Year of the Running Back." But 1971 college football squads are loaded with as fine a group as has come along in some time.

Awaiting their turns to make headlines with game-breaking runs are a solid quartet from the Big 10 that includes Otis Armstrong of Purdue, Billy Taylor from Michigan, Eric Allen of Michigan State and Levi Mitchell from Iowa. The Big Eight boasts Johnny Rodgers and Jeff Kinney from Nebraska, Oklahoma's Joe Wylie and Clifford Branch at Colorado.

New Mexico State's Ron (Po) James is closing in on Steve Owens' all-time collegiate rushing record. There is Lawrence McCutcheon at Colorado State and Doug McCutchen at Texas Tech. The best ball toters in the South could be Johnny Musso of Alabama, Phil Mosser at William & Mary, Larry Hopkins at Wake Forest and Duke's Steve Jones.

THE WEST COAST FEATURES ball-toting standouts like Sam Cunningham at Southern Cal, Bob Moore at Oregon, Dave Schillings at Oregon State and Isaac Curtis at California.

Then there are speedsters Jim Bertelsen at Texas, Gary Kosins from Dayton, Cincinnati's Steve Cowan and Albert Johnson, Lydell Mitchell and Franco Harris at Penn State and Monroe Eley at Arizona State.

Thus, there will be extra stress on defensive measures to stop these potent runners and the veer attack that has become so popular. The fact that Notre Dame brought an end to Texas' 30-game winning streak in the Cotton Bowl may be taken as indication an answer has been found to Darrell Royal's wishbone-T and the other triple option offenses.

IT WOULD BE WELL TO REMEMBER, however, that Royal has pointed out his Longhorns gained a lot of yardage in the post-season defeat and that he attributes the loss to "a breakdown of our kicking game."

To stop the triple option, it becomes almost compulsory to play a light man-to-man pass defense. This will mean that defensive backs must be faster and quicker in 1971. For squads with a limited number of personnel here, the only alternative may be to stress offense in the hope of winning the high scoring games.

Last season in each major-college game played, there was an average of 42.6 points scored, 656.3 yards in total offense and 148.8 offensive plays divided between the two teams.

SHIRT OFF HIS BACK—Colorado quarterback Paul Arendt would give that and more for yardage against Tulane in the Liberty Bowl. Green Wave defenders are Joe Bullard, Paul Ellis (13) and shirt-puller Steve Stark (82). Tulane unfrocked Buffs, 17-3.

These figures were almost identical to those recorded after the 1969 season. The chances for similar totals in 1971 are good.

The addition of an 11th game by many colleges in 1970 helped bring an additional 1,839,444 fans into stadiums. A record total of 29,465,604 people viewed college football last fall. Fourteen schools had an average home attendance of more than 60,000. There should be no letdown in this public interest. Almost all areas expect improvement in overall caliber.

In the background of this upcoming season is the continuing consideration by the National Collegiate Athletic Association of proposals designed to curtail the costs of athletics, football in particular.

The Financial Aid Committee of the NCAA will probably recommend to a January convention that football grants-in-aid be based on need and limit schools to 30 per year, starting with a bank of 10. Other proposals would limit the five-year eligibility rule to 10 players, make grants for one year instead of four, and to have national signing dates. There are strong efforts afoot to make freshmen eligible for varsity football play.

None of these things will affect the game this season, but the present era may be at an end because of the expected changes.

A year ago, there was some concern over the possible disruption of games by activists and militants. Fortunately, this fear proved almost groundless, but it still exists, if to a lesser degree.

There also is the ever-increasing problem of squad unrest. Some defection

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS, 1924-1970

Nebraska and Texas are the unofficial national co-champions for 1970, the fourth time in 17 years the wire service polls did not agree on the champion.

The United Press International (coaches) named Texas (a unanimous choice in 1969) at the season's end. The Associated Press (writers) waited until after the year-end bowl games to declare Nebraska its choice.

This marked the first national crown for the Cornhuskers, who were also voted the Grantland Rice Award by the Football Writers' Association of America.

The Associated Press poll of sports writers was originated in 1936 and the United Press International poll of coaches in 1950. Representing opinions of observers across the country, they are the popularly accepted electors to national ranking. Prior to the polls, the Rissman and Knute Rockne trophies symbolized the championships from 1924 to 1936. The titlists so designated:

NATIONAL RATINGS, 1936-1970

The most successful major teams of the past 35 years, according to the ratings produced by the press association polls, have been Notre Dame, Oklahoma and Texas. Counting 10 points for each season-end first place rating, 9 for second and so on, the Irish have accumulated 151 points, the Sooners 102 and the Longhorns 91, 27 in the last three seasons.

Notre Dame .. 151	Alabama	85	Michigan	80	Army	61
Oklahoma 102	Ohio State	85	Mich. State	80	LSU	80
Texas 91	Tennessee	84	Southern Cal ...	61	Minnesota	57

of dissident players will not be unexpected in 1971 again. Teams are being subjected to outside pressures that seek to minimize the role of an athletic program on today's college campus.

As usual, there were numerous changes in head coaching positions, with the attending optimism about improving losing situations. In the rush to develop winning programs, several schools lost their successful coaches. At those institutions, assistants usually moved up.

The fan can expect the same kind of excitement in 1971 that he enjoyed last fall. There were a number of changes made in the playing code, but nothing major was done that will be noticed by the spectator. The game will look basically the same as a year ago.

Which team will succeed Nebraska as national champion?

Perhaps none.

Coach Bob Devaney will field another Cornhusker powerhouse that includes 13 starters and 36 lettermen from the 1970 unbeaten (a 21-21 tie with Southern Cal marred a perfect slate) outfit that was 11-0-1 against strong opposition. Nebraska clinched the final No. 1 national ranking by beating Louisiana State, 17-12, in the Orange Bowl New Year's night after Notre Dame had stopped Texas in the Cotton Bowl and Stanford had upset Ohio State in the Rose Bowl earlier in the day.

The usual names come up in discussing challengers—LSU, Auburn and Tennessee in the South; Texas and Arkansas in the Southwest, Southern Cal and UCLA on the West Coast, Michigan and Ohio State in the Big 10, Oklahoma in the Big Eight, Arizona State in the Western Athletic Conference and Notre Dame Penn State and the Air Force among independents.

But there will be others. The Pacific Eight, for instance, believes that almost any of its teams could be ranked No. 1 this season.

Georgia Tech is on its way back, Alabama never can be discounted, there was a coaching change at Mississippi, but the club has an established winning tradition, Texas Tech is making challenges in the Southwest, the Big Eight points with justified pride to its impressive record against non-conference opponents and Syracuse made a remarkable comeback in 1970 after a disturbing start.

There are many others who believe they are now headed for consistent high ranking in the polls and the bowl invitations that come at the end of the season. Then there are Ivy League members who are happy with good teams that are denied bowl bids because they limit their competition to a close family circle in the East.

The teams which have capable quarterbacks to work with the outstanding runners in 1971—and which also know how to play defense—will succeed. But there must also be experienced depth and good fortune.

The plane crash tragedies experienced by Wichita State and Marshall in 1970 make luck encompass many more things than fumbles and interceptions. Both these clubs return to the fold in 1971 playing with new young men, but playing nonetheless.

CRYSTAL(?) BALL GAZING—Florida's Alan Cole and Robert Harrell and Georgia's Mixon Robinson (left to right) all seem to be peering into the football. Harrell moved first, capturing errant fumble, as 'Gators did in the Bulldogs, 24 to 17.

Thirteen Wichita State players and 31 in the traveling party died in their mishap over Colorado on Oct. 2. Then on Nov. 14, Marshall's chartered aircraft went down, bringing death to 44 players and coaches and to a total of 71 coming home from East Carolina.

The sports world responded generously to various fund appeals, and both institutions slowly regrouped their athletic forces. Wichita State missed only two 1970 games, resuming play courageously against Arkansas.

THE 1970 SEASON WAS ONE in which early games were of major significance. Penn State was a pre-season choice to make a strong run for the national championship, but the Nittany Lions lost three of their first five before catching fire and winning the last five in a row.

The Air Force Academy was a surprise power at the same time. Army was winning only one game and Navy two. The Falcons stunned the football world with a 37-14 romp at Missouri early in the year, and then late in the season shocked Stanford, 31-14.

Texas went through its regular schedule without a defeat, but had its long winning streak halted in the Cotton Bowl by Notre Dame. LSU opened its season by losing to Texas A&M, 20-18, (only one of two A&M wins in '70) on a last-second desperation pass. The Tigers went on to win their next seven to land an Orange Bowl bid.

IN THE BIG TEN, Ohio State and Michigan swept by all opponents to face each other in an action-packed finale. The Buckeyes won, 20-9, getting revenge for a 1969 upset that deprived them of a perfect campaign.

Tennessee lost only to Auburn, 36-23, making Bill Battle's first season almost perfect with a victory over Air Force in the Sugar Bowl.

Arizona State rolled through its regular schedule without a loss and eagerly accepted its first bowl bid (a 48-26 Peach Bowl win over North Carolina) in an effort to get more national recognition.

One of the true Cinderella stories was authored by Wake Forest. Chosen to finish last in the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Deacons topped the league championship, finishing 6-5.

DARTMOUTH WENT THROUGH the season without a loss, except when coach Bob Blackman moved to Illinois at season's end. Toledo had another perfect campaign, but its coach Francis Lauterbur, left for Iowa University.

The pro ranks snapped up Tommy Prothro from UCLA and Dan Devine at Missouri. Taking over from Prothro was Kansas' Pepper Rodgers, a famed developer of quarterbacks. Don Fambrough, a Jayhawk assistant for 19 years, was Rodgers' replacement. Missouri also decided to elevate assistant Al Onofrio to Devine's top spot.

ARTILLERY SUPPORT—As Norwich end Bob Tall (25) scored against St. Lawrence, his team's saluting battery apparently left the field strewn with enemy tacklers. Charlie Boozer (44) and Jeff Rotman are well-wishers. Norwich was 37-14 winner.

Other new head coaches for the 1971 season are Jim Pittman at Texas Christian, Bill Peterson at Rice, Gene Mayfield at West Texas State and in the Ivy League where Harry Gamble comes to Penn, Joe Restic takes over at Harvard and Jake Crouthamel succeeds Blackman at Dartmouth.

Former Boston College star Eddie Doherty was signed to bring Holy Cross out of its slump, Larry Jones took over at Florida State. Charlie Coffey moved to the No. 1 job at Virginia Tech, Mike McGee comes back to his alma mater, Duke, and Sonny Randle got the East Carolina post.

Don Lawrence took over at Virginia. Fran Curci, who once starred at Miami of Florida, returns as head coach and Bob Thalman comes to VMI. Among others with new jobs, are Jack Lengyel at Marshall, Don James at Kent State, Fritz Shurmur at Wyoming, Billy Kinard at Mississippi and Jack Murphy replacing Lauterbur at Toledo.

Many of the new head men will join the veteran mentors in the nationwide hunt for new signal callers.

It's a problem that's not noticeable at such fortified bastions as Auburn where 1970 total offense leader Pat Sullivan returns or at Washington where passing whiz Sonny Sixkiller still holds the fort, or even at Southern Cal which heralds the return of Jimmy Jones.

There are others like Texas which has Eddie Phillips, Texas Tech with Charley Napper, Florida with John Reaves, Oregon with Dan Fouts, Minnesota with Craig Curry, Nebraska with Jerry Tagge, Toledo with Chuck Ealey, Wake Forest with Larry Russell, North Carolina with Paul Miller, Oklahoma with Jack Mildren and San Diego State with Brian Sipe.

Yes, the quarterbacks will be heard from in 1971. After all, there can't be a "Year of the Running Back" in college football without some pinpoint passing to spread the defense.

FLOATING FOOTBALL—As unattended pigskin flies by, Delaware's Ron Klein (41) puts on the brakes to watch in amazement. New Hampshire's Don Hugstrom (in white, and Blue Hen Ray Holcomb 67, also take a look. Delaware posted easy 53-12 win.

By DAVE WARNER

*Editorial Staff, The Rochester (N.Y.) Democrat & Chronicle
Director, Football Writers' Association of America*

College football's toughest coaching act to follow this season will be at Dartmouth where Jake Crouthamel succeeds Bob Blackman who moved on to guide the grid destinies at Illinois.

But then, holdover mentors Ben Schwartzwalder at Syracuse and Joe Paterno at Penn State will have to put together pretty fair performances, too, just to top their own resurrection "miracles" of 1970.

Not even forgetting the national championship team of 1959, Schwartzwalder turned in his finest coaching job in 22 years last season at Syracuse, which won six of its last seven games after losing the first three and being outscored, 100-29, by the opposition.

SIMILARLY, IF LESS DRAMATICALLY, Paterno brought the Nittany Lions back from a dismal 2-3 beginning to victories in their last five games.

Meanwhile, Blackman was wrapping up a 16-year record at Hanover, N. H., which was 104-37-3 and included three unbeaten teams, 1970 being the last when the Indians won the Ivy League title for the seventh time (fourth outright) and the Lambert Trophy for the second time.

Dartmouth dominated the '70 Ivy race as no team has done in the league's 15-year history. The Indians were ranked among the nation's top 10 in seven of nine major offensive and defensive categories and were No. 1 in scoring defense (4.7 points per game and six shutouts).

Crouthamel has been a member of the Dartmouth staff for six years and played for Blackman (1957-59), so don't expect dramatic changes in the team's style of play.

JAKE PLANS to be more conservative on offense possibly because he loses two-year, all-Ivy quarterback Jim Chasey. But the defense, for which he was largely responsible during the past two years when Dave Warner's first position in sports was as a student assistant in the Notre Dame sports information office in the days of the great Frank Leahy football teams.

Now on the editorial staff of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, he has served on the Football Writers' press box and brochure committees.

Warner has authored three sports books, numerous magazine articles, and contributes to "Coach & Athlete."

He is a member of the national committee for Notre Dame's International Sports and Games Research Collection, and is past president of the Rochester Press-Radio Club.

A KICK IN THE HEAD Dartmouth halfback John Short apparently receives a swift one to the helmet as Harvard safety Brad Fenton upends him with help from unidentified Crimson mate. Short kicked back with three TDs in Indians' 37-14 win.

the Indians won 17 of 18, will be virtually unchanged.

Many coaches feel the biggest trend in college football this season will be towards the use of a full house (straight-T) backfield, similar to the Texas offense. There's a distinct trend toward the running game.

And eastern college football's most exciting runner will be Cornell's Ed Mannaro, who is something of a one-man full house backfield. The 6-3, 210-pound senior tailback could make a strong run at the Heisman Trophy this season after leading the nation in game rushing average the last two years with the Big Red. He had 1,425 yards in 1970.

Mostly because of the explosive Mannaro, Cornell rates a good shot at the Ivy title along with Princeton, Harvard and never to be counted out Dartmouth. The league is well balanced for 1971.

BEFORE THE IVY PICTURE, a look at the East's "Big Six" independents.

Rebuilding the offensive line and finding an entirely new defensive secondary are the major problems at Penn State. The offensive backfield potential remains bright with Lydell Mitchell and Franco Harris, both among the Nittany Lions' all time rushing leaders. They were both injured last season in early games, but recovered in time to play major roles as the Lions rallied late to record a 7-3 mark.

"We came on very strong last year and by the end of the season I thought we were a good football team," Paterno explained. "We should be ready for another good season in 1971."

Quarterback, a question mark last season until John Hufnagel won the job at mid-year, appears solid again with Hufnagel, senior Bob Parsons and sophomores Steve Joachim and John Koniszewski. Hufnagel steered the Lions to that five-game win streak.

RESET WITH A RACIAL BOYCOTT that would have discouraged a lesser man, Schwartzwalder stayed with his guns to bring Syracuse home with a respectable mark in 1970. The Orange turned their season around with a 24-7 win over arch-rival Penn State.

Greg Allen and John Lobon, two of the eight Blacks who boycotted spring practice last year and did not play in the fall, have indicated to Schwartzwalder that they plan to play this season.

Fullback Marty Januszkiewicz was a surprise sophomore performer in '70, gaining 769 yards. Only Floyd Little and Larry Csonka did better in first-year Syracuse varsity efforts.

The return of all-America tackle Joe Ehrmann and middle guard Ted Lachowicz help stamp the Orange defense as tough again. Syracuse may be only a quarterback away from a great season.

"THIS SHOULD BE AN EXCITING and challenging year," Pittsburgh coach Carl DePasqua says about his third campaign as Panther boss. "We're going to a multiple offense this year because I think we finally have the quarterback who can do it. We also have a strong group of sophomores to go with a fine nucleus of veteran players."

Receiving, quarterbacking and the interior offensive line are the strong points for the Panthers who have 21 returning lettermen.

The major weaknesses are lack of depth to compete with the usually rugged Pitt schedule, offensive and defensive tackle and lack of experience in the offensive and defensive backfields.

Pitt has three senior all-America possibilities in linebacker Ralph Cindrich, and guards Jack Dykes and John Simpson. The top backs are senior halfback John Moss, junior defensive back Reggie Frye, junior quarterback John Hogan and sophomore signal caller Bob Medwid.

Army suffered its worst season under coach Tom Cahill as the record sagged to 1-9-1 in 1970. Injuries to key players, lack of depth and perhaps the toughest schedule ever in Army history (the Cadets played three of the top four ranked clubs nationally), added to the trouble.

Fourteen lettermen return and most of them will be geared for starting roles. Junior quarterback Dick Atha has proved he can move the club either through the air or on the ground.

Other players to watch are fullback Ray Rutacco, the squad's leading ground gainer, fullback-halfback Bob Hines, wide receiver John Simar, center Cliff Volz and guard Gregg True. Captain-elect John Roth was an all-America defensive end nominee.

SEVERAL CANDIDATES up from the Plebe ranks could crack the starting lineup. The most promising are tight end Joe Miller, linebacker Dave Molten and offensive lineman Ted Davis.

From his 2-9 club of 1970, Navy coach Rick Forzano has 25 of 34 lettermen returning. An inconsistent offense, which scored more than 14 points only once in 11 games last season, will get a lift with the return of its top running and pass receiving threats Andy Pease, Bob Elflein and Don Canterna—all of whom picked up more than 300 yards rushing last year, and Mick Barr, the Middles' top pass catcher the last two seasons.

Ade Dillon, John Buttermore and Fred Stuvek will battle for the quarterback job with Dillon the favorite.

The offensive gem from the freshman team is wide receiver Larry Van-Loan, who has the potential to become the best in Naval Academy history. Navy's best defensive player is junior linebacker Chuck Voith.

West Virginia coach Bobby Bowden says it may be an overworked word, but "inexperience" will prevail over the 1971 Mountaineer team as only six starters return in a rebuilding year.

IT SHOULD BE AN EXCITING, if at times frustrating, year for West Virginia fans in '71. The school will field the fastest team, at the skilled positions, in Mountaineer history. And if Bowden can develop strong offensive and defensive lines, this club may be more than exciting.

Cornell's bid to wrest Ivy League honors from Dartmouth rests largely on the development of a quarterback to replace Rick Furbish, and the expected continuance of Mannaro's dominating running game.

TWO-WAY STRETCH Harvard halfback Ted DeMars and Northeastern defensive back Tom Rozzatti have a difference of opinion on which way the former should be going, with DeMars' jersey the focal point of the battle. The Crimson won, 28-7.

THREE-WAY POUNCE—Intent on recovering loose football are Miami, Fla., quarterback Kelly Cochran and Syracuse defensive linemen Joe Ehrmann '76, and Ted Lachowicz. Orange' 42-point first half blew Hurricanes out of contention, 56-16

Princeton has strong running backs and a sound defensive interior line, but must correct a weakness for turning the ball over and strengthen the aerial game. The Tigers committed 37 turnovers last year.

HARVARD WILL BE LEARNING an entirely new system under new coach Joe Restie who succeeds the retiring John Yoviesin. Restie brings an exciting, complicated and highly successful multiple-set offense with him.

Despite the return of 29 lettermen from a 7-2 team which tied Harvard for second place, Yale coach Carm Cozza's big job in '71 is to rebuild his defense. ECAC Sophomore-of-the-Year, Dick Jauron, returns at tailback, 210-pound Rich Maher is a top end, and Chuck Sizemore is the likely QB.

Brown coach Len Jardine has toughened the Bruins considerably during the past four years. This could be the year that some of those close losses are converted into wins. Based on returning personnel, Jardine's '71 unit is the best he's ever had on hand.

At Columbia, coach Frank Navarro sounds an optimistic note. "With 27 lettermen returning from our best team in eight years and the best balance in the Ivy League in many years, I expect that Columbia will be a major factor in the Ivy race.

IT'S SOMETHING NEW FOR PENN to have as many as 34 letter winners returning for a football season. It's nothing new or unusual for Penn to be going into a football season minus an experienced quarterback.

Both situations greet Harry Gamble in his first year as Penn coach. The numbers are there to field a squad that at least counts experience as one of its strong points. But the numbers are lacking at quarterback where the only letterman, Gary Shue, has never started a game.

Eddie Doherty has been handed the challenge of putting the brightening polish on a Holy Cross football team which hasn't won a game since Nov. 23, 1968. The Crusaders played two games both in 1969, before a hepatitis outbreak caused cancellation of the final eight contests. Then last fall an experienced team labored through an 0-10-1 year.

Holy Cross is strong in the punting department. Mark Becker and Rick PARDON ME, but that's my end you're trying to run around, Navy linebacker Rick Porterfeld informs Lydell Mitchell of Penn State. Mitchell ignored this tap on the shoulder, ramblod for long gain in Nittany Lions' 55-7 rout of Midshipmen.

Pelletier are rated two of the nation's finest booters. Becker's 41.5 average was fourth best nationally last season and Pelletier was at 38.3.

Coach Joe Yukica brought Boston College in with an 8-2 record in 1970, the Eagles' best showing since 1942 when the team was ranked in the top 10 nationally. Included in the eight wins were victories over three of the East's Big Six independents, Navy, Pitt and Army.

Boston College will rely on an outstanding defensive unit to stay in its games until the offensive unit, with several new starters, can jell.

Boston's kicking game is tops. John O'Hagen is a proven punter. John Kline kicks off and boots the long field goals with consistency. He had a 52-yarder last year and Larry Berridge hit 40 of 42 PATs.

Villanova reports a return of 27 lettermen from last year's squad which won nine of 11 games. The returnees include all-America candidates Mike Siani and John Babinecz.

THE ENTIRE 1970 OFFENSIVE UNIT RETURNS—a group which set 10 Villanova season and seven game records. Siani ranked fourth nationally as a receiver, gaining more yards than any other pass catcher in 1970.

Daryl Woodring and Drew Gordon return at quarterback. Woodring led the East in total offense last season, averaging 191.5 yards per game. Linebacker Babinecz is considered one of the best in the East if not the nation.

The development of sophomores will be the key to any success for Rutgers which lost a large number of veteran players. Much will depend on Leo Gasienica's progress at quarterback. Larry Robertson is a classy tailback and Larry Christoff the tight end, was a fine sophomore.

Defensively, the line includes only one holdover—tackle Alan Bain, who saw most of his duty last year on offense. The linebacking is strong with solid returnees in Sam Picketts, Gary Martin and Andy Makekoff.

IF OUTSTANDING FRESHMAN TEAMS are a barometer of football fortunes, then 1971 promises to be a good year for Colgate.

Not since 1936 had a Colgate frosh team gone through an unbeaten season until the 1970 yearlings finished 5-0 with personnel tabbed the best in the Chenango Valley since World War II.

Add to that 14 starters returning from a 5-6 varsity. Of the eight regulars lost via graduation, one Steve Goepel, accounted for nearly two thirds of the Red Raider offense last year. Sophomore Tom Parr will succeed Goepel. This speedster ran for 917 yards in five games as a freshman and is an excellent passer to boot.

Moravian, which captured its first division title last fall, and either Juniata or Albright, having struggled through rebuilding seasons, appear to be the teams to beat in the 1971 Middle Atlantic Conference campaign.

Moravian, which edged Muhlenberg for the Southern crown on a point system, has five conference all-stars back, but must overcome a schedule which pits the Greyhounds against all the top Northern division schools.

Leading Moravian will be quarterback Joe Dowling and receiver Dan Joseph. As a junior, Dowling was fourth in total offense, third in passing and second in punting. Joseph, a sophomore, was the division's top receiver.

The Greyhounds will get support from all-stars Dom Vecchio, Bill Glaser and Bill Gastmeyer, along with scoring leader Wayne Marish.

Moravian's chief opposition could come from either PMC or Lebanon Valley. PMC has all star back Rick Weaver who owns two MAC records for total offense and rushing and led the conference in scoring as a junior.

Lebanon Valley will have a new coach but quarterback Ed Boeckle returns after leading the Southern division in total offense and passing as a soph.

The Northern race, won by Susquehanna for the first time since 1962, appears to be a tossup. Juniata has nearly its entire team returning, including seven division all-stars.

Albright, with sophomore running back Robin Bender returning, finished second a year ago and could do better this fall.

Upsala will again challenge with pass receiver Joe Scarpelli the top offensive threat Wilkes, the division champion two years ago, but ineligible last year, and Susquehanna are contenders.

Co-champions Montclair State and Southern Connecticut will defend their conference crown in an abbreviated Eastern Football Conference in 1971.

The league will be composed of just four teams this season. Bridgeport has decided not to participate in the EFC in 1971.

Montclair's Indians had a 9-1 record the last time around, including a victory over Hampton-Sydney in the Knute Rockne Bowl, and coach Clary Anderson will welcome several veterans for the 1971 season. Halfback Glenn Morchauser will head a punishing Montclair ground attack while defensive end Mike VanZile, one of the nation's leading punters, will anchor the defense.

Southern Connecticut coach Harry Shay will have 14 starters back from last season's 5-3-1 squad including leading rusher Gordon Taylor. Along with a potent running game, the Owls' defense will be strong.

With the conference trend toward powerful running attacks, Central Connecticut will be no exception. Coach Bill Loka's backfield boasts Bill Tintin, a standout sophomore, Rich Cunningham and Bill Mackey.

Glassboro State suffered key graduation losses but coach Dick Wackar will build his offense around three veteran quarterbacks, Charles Donovan, Bob Preziosi and Bill Hyatt.

Edinboro posted the best record (9-1) in its 44-year football history last season, won the Lambert Bowl and the conference championship, beating West Chester, 14-6, in the playoff game. With 17 regulars returning, the Scots are favored to repeat.

Among Edinboro's returnees are five all-conference players headed by fullback Bob Mangerink and linebacker Rich Iordido.

The Scots' leading competition in the West should come from Clarion, which lost nearly its entire offensive team but has eight defensive starters back.

Shippensburg may be the darkhorse with 29 lettermen on hand.

Slippery Rock and California both label 1971 as a rebuilding year. Lock Haven returns its offensive backfield led by ace passer Mike Packer.

In the East, West Chester and East Stroudsburg have dominated divisional action for the past 10 years and are likely to battle for top honors again.

West Chester has 24 lettermen including defensive tackle Joe Carroll and safety Bruce Udovich. East Stroudsburg depends on its all conference combination of quarterback Steve Mumma and end Glenn Gottshalk.

Kutztown suffered heavy graduation losses and Millersville and Bloomsburg should move up. Both Mansfield and Cheyney expect improvement.

For the second year in a row, two head coaching changes took place in the Yankee Conference and Bob Casella at Connecticut and Dick MacPherson at Massachusetts will undoubtedly have some new wrinkles for their opponents in the battle for the Bean Pot.

Connecticut, which won the league crown outright for the first time in 11 years last fall, has some talented material from an outstanding freshman team to complement its veterans and appears to be the team to beat.

Massachusetts has the best chance to dethrone the Huskies, but has to find a quarterback for offensive consistency in crucial games.

Jim Root's New Hampshire team, as well as the revitalized Rhode Island squad under second-year coach Jack Gregory, will continue to show improvement in conference play and might be spoilers if the favorites falter.

Maine's Black Bears are hoping to improve on their fifth place finish of a year ago and Vermont must strengthen its defense to move up from the bottom.

Dixie's Three Surprise Champions Geared To Repeat 1970 Successes

By DEAN EAGLE

Sports Editor, The Louisville Courier-Journal
Director, Football Writers' Association of America

It should be a great year for defending champions in southern football. They're loaded again—Louisiana State of the Southeastern Conference, Wake Forest of the Atlantic Coast Conference and William & Mary of the Southern Conference.

Take LSU for instance. Charles McClendon, whose nine-year record is 70-24-4 with the Bayou Bengals, has high hopes of repeating in the SEC.

A total of 32 lettermen will return, including seven offensive and five defensive starters. Among them is all-America cornerback Tommy Casanova, a Heisman Trophy candidate, plus all-SEC performers Mike Demarie, a guard, fullback Arthur Cantrelle and defensive tackle Ronnie Estay.

ONCE AGAIN CHOLLY MAC plans his offense around "the walking I" and a defense utilizing the 4-3 alignment. He will continue to use 50 or so performers, not because he has an overabundance of talent, but to use someone in the proper position at the proper time.

Since going through a siege of quarterback injuries, McClendon has become an exponent of the two-quarterback system. It has paid off in that he has been able to bring along a young field director under fire while using his veteran quarterback only 60 per cent of the time.

On offense, LSU must look to junior quarterback Bert Jones (6-3, 205), he of the strong arm and high promise, to take over the No. 1 spot from departed Buddy Lee.

LSU appears to be stronger on offense with only nine lettermen lost, but the defense must be rebuilt, particularly in the line and secondary.

PROSPECTS FOR the Deacons of Wake Forest are the richest in several years. Their performance was acclaimed by many as the biggest surprise during the 1970 season.

There are 23 lettermen

Dean Eagle, widely honored and widely-rambling sports editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, set his sights on that very job while a sophomore at Corbin High School.

For a 15-year period, however, he missed his goal by about 10 feet—the distance between his desk and the desk of Earl Ruby, who was Courier-Journal sports editor for 30 years. Serving meanwhile as Louisville Times sports chief, Eagle attained his present post when Ruby retired in 1969.

Eagle, a noted golf and racing writer, in 1964 correctly picked longshot Northern Dancer and his record-setting time in the Kentucky Derby.

back from the ACC championship team, 15 of them starters.

The offense is expected to offer fireworks and for good reason. The top four rushers return, plus the leading passer and three of the top four receivers from a team that averaged 21.3 points per game against conference foes.

Quarterback Larry Russell is a master at directing the Deacons' veer attack, while fullback Larry Hopkins is one of the South's top rushers. The two piled up 2,304 yards in 1970.

The Wake Forest defense also has plenty of power, including Ed Bradley, one of the top linebackers in the country Tackle Dick Chulada (6-5, 260), will anchor the forward wall for the third straight year.

COACH LOU HOLTZ' BUILDING PROGRAM is at least a year ahead of schedule at William & Mary. He says the Indians will be 75 per cent better in '71.

Southern Conference Player-of-the-Year Phil Mosser, who set a number of records, returns along with running mate Todd Bushnell. Steve Regan, the diminutive quarterback who led W&M to four wins in the last six games after becoming a starter, is back.

Led by all-Southern Conference selection Paul Scolaro, the defensive backfield is the strongest in years. But the defensive line must be rebuilt. David Cripe, the conference's top punter, has a senior season.

In the Southeastern Conference, Tennessee, with a couple of probable all-Americans heading up a seasoned defense, must find replacements for departed stars at quarterback and in the interior offensive line.

All-America linebacker Jackie Walker and safety Bobby Majors are back. Majors, with 10 interceptions to his credit was the primary thief in Tennessee's larceny of an SEC record 36 passes.

back Johnny Musso—on offense indicate good things for Alabama in 1971.

Letterman Terry Davis and redshirt sophomore Billy Sexton will fight for Scott Hunter's job at quarterback. John Hannah is an all-America candidate at offensive tackle and David Bailey at split end is one of the nation's top receivers. Jeff Rouzie and Jim Krapf return at linebacker and Robin Parkhouse is an outstanding defensive end.

Florida has quarterback John Reaves and flanker Carlos Alvarez back and that alone is disconcerting to SEC opponents. Much improvement is needed in the offensive line and defensive backfield.

Eight regulars, including all-SEC linemen Royce Smith and Tom Nash, and tailback Sophomore of the Year Ricky Lake, return at Georgia, where Andy Johnson is expected to be a super soph at quarterback. Two very promising sophomores, tackle Jim Cagle and safety Jerome Jackson, will also bolster the defense which lost five regulars.

AT KENTUCKY, COACH JOHN RAY'S HOPES for a winning season rest heavily on sophomores who, as his first "full" class of recruits, lost only once—to Ohio State, 10-7. Leading frosh ground gainer was Doug Kotar.

Coach Bill Pice has his most experienced squad since taking over at Vanderbilt five years ago. Among the 43 lettermen are 16 of the 22 starters, eight from each unit. Watson Brown, the quarterback out much of last season due to injuries, is counted on heavily. Defensively, the line will feature George Avernathy at end and Mike Kirk at tackle.

"We have a lot of newcomers and I am sure they don't quite realize at this time what it takes to win in the Southeastern Conference," says Auburn head man Ralph (Shug) Jordan.

Even though Jordan moans over the loss of 18 lettermen, 11 of which were on starting units, he is understandably happy about the return of Heisman Trophy candidate Pat Sullivan who quarterbacked the Tigers to an 8-3 regular season mark and a 35-28 Gator Bowl win over Mississippi.

Sullivan led the nation in total offense in 1970 accounting for 26 TDs and 2,856 yards, a 285.6-yard average per game. He completed 59 per cent of his passes, many to returning split end Terry Beasley, who snared 52 for 1,051 yards in 1970.

Auburn's offensive line wasn't hit hard by graduation, but numerous replacements are needed in the defensive lineup.

Mississippi's new coach Billy Kinard, faces the conference slate minus 16 starters, including standout quarterback Archie Manning.

TOP RETURNEES FOR THE REBS on offense will be fullback tailback Randy Reed, tailback Bobby Knight, tight end Jim Poole and guard John Gregory. Manning's vacated post will be filled by Norris Weese, Shug Chumbler or Kenny Lyons. Chumbler is the only one with any experience. The best on defense are tackle Elmer Allen, linebackers Paul Dongieux and Crowell Armstrong, end Preston Carpenter and back Danny Stallings.

Charley Shira's rebuilding efforts paid off at Mississippi State in 1970 with upsets over Texas Tech, Vanderbilt, Georgia and Mississippi.

Shira lost only one defensive player, but must come up with new bodies to fill nine offensive spots. Scrambling junior Billy Baker is apparently Joe Reed's successor at quarterback with Lewis Grubbs (644 rushing yards) the chief running threat.

The experienced defensive unit will again feature big ends Jim McAlpin and Jack Hall and tackles Jerry Conrad and Mike Eaton.

IN THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE, Mike McGee returns to his alma mater, Duke, as head coach. McGee's biggest concern for 1971 will be replacing all-ACC performers Leo Hart at quarterback and flanker Wes Chesson. Duke's running game will revolve around junior Steve Jones.

Tackle Ed Newman anchors the offensive line. Duke returns lettermen in all line positions. The defense will be led by all-ACC choices Rich Searl, a defensive back, and end Bruce Mills.

Coach Paul Dietzel will spend a lot of time shoring up his defense at South Carolina. It received much of the blame for the team's unexpected failures in 1970. All-America defensive back Dick Harris is a good starting point for such a mission. Jackie Young, heir apparent to quarterback Tommy Soggs, will have all-ACC end Jim Mitchell to throw to.

Coach Earle Edwards has 26 lettermen returning at North Carolina State. Solid backs Pat Kenney and Gary Moser will be the keys to a good ground game. The defense is strong, especially at linebacker.

Hootie Ingram's Clemson club will have an improved running game this season "With the running game to compliment the passing attack, our offense should be able to move the ball better, which is an asset to our defense," says Ingram, who has 36 lettermen, including 15 starters.

ALL-ACC DEFENSIVE END Guy Roberts and offensive guard Bill Meister top the list of 16 senior monogram winners at Maryland. The Terps' strength appears to be defense with 13 lettermen back. Leading the offense is tailback, Art Seymore, who gained 945 yards rushing as a sophomore.

The Virginia Cavaliers return their entire offensive backfield, including two-year rushing and scoring leader Gary Helman. Bill Troup took over the quarterback spot in the fifth game last year, tossed 10 touchdown passes and completed 93 of 184 throws for 1,289 yards.

Despite the loss of all-America Don McCauley and the entire offensive line, hopes are high for another winning season at North Carolina. Chief reason is the return of 10 who at one time or another were starters on the highly-ranked Carolina defensive team.

In the two years of its veer offense, The Citadel has shattered every offensive record in the school's history, and 1971 could be a vintage year for the Southern Conference institution. Two-time all-conference tailback Bob Duncan figures to lead the attack.

THIS WILL BE A REBUILDING YEAR in which sophomores and junior college transfers will have to come through for coach Frank Jones at Richmond. Standout of the team should be senior cornerback Ray Easterling.

Furman coach Bob King is wondering what he will have to do for an encore after last year's 8-3 effort. Running back Steve Crislip, quarterback John De Leo, defensive tackle Ron Boozer, defensive guard Chester Willis and defensive back Mike Fabian will be counted on for leadership in 1971.

East Carolina's offense will be much stronger than it was in '70 and the defense equally as strong as the one which led the conference.

Davidson's second-year coach Dave Fagg is looking for a quarterback to replace departed Mark Thompson. Junior Scotty Shipp is the heir apparent, but threw only six passes in 1970, completing one for 51 yards and a TD, so the Wildcats will now grind out yardage over land.

Virginia Military Institute, long noted as one of the smallest colleges (1,200 men) playing a major-college schedule, appears to be on its way out of the doldrums. Coach Bob Thalman will have 40 lettermen.

AMONG INDEPENDENTS, hopes are brightest at Tulane, where Green Wave fans have reason to be optimistic after being treated to their first bowl game in 30 years—a 17-3 win over Colorado in the Liberty Bowl.

Tulane has a new coach, Bonnie Ellender, small college Coach of the Year at Arkansas State in 1970. Eight starters are back on offense and six on defense. Top returnees are defensive backs Joe Bullard, Paul Ellis and David Hebert, who picked off 22 of a record 28 interceptions last fall.

Virginia Tech has 37 returning lettermen, but the team's overall speed isn't as great as coach Charlie Coffey would like.

There are 33 lettermen and some blue-chip sophomores at Southern Mississippi where two defensive and six offensive starting spots are open. Punting ace Ray Guy (45.3 average) and super soph Doyle Orange (850 yards in five freshmen games), will be the players to watch.

In the words of positive-thinking coach Bud Carson, "Georgia Tech will have another good football team in 1971. Tech is back with the nation's leaders and we're going to stay up there." Seven offensive and a like number of defensive starters return.

FLORIDA STATE WILL HAVE A NEW COACH, Larry Jones, who promises FSU will throw the ball as it has in past years. The Seminoles have 38 lettermen back, including last season's leading pass receiver, Rhett Dawson, and the entire offensive line. Gary Huff, a part-time starter in 1970, and sophomore Fred Geisler, figure to battle for the quarterback spot.

A new era in University of Miami football—the Fran Curci era—commences this fall for the Hurricanes. Curci has 36 lettermen and expects to

With most of the teams enjoying the return of many veterans, it appears that the Ohio Valley Conference will have another exciting season. Defending champion Western Kentucky lost some topnotch players but the Hilltopper roster contains enough strength to capably defend the title.

Middle Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky and Morehead State all have proven material and should be championship threats. Three of the league's most exciting players enhance the chances of these teams. They are running backs Reuben Justice of Middle Tennessee and Jim Brooks of Eastern Kentucky and quarterback Dave Schaetzke of Morehead State.

The remaining teams, Austin Peay, East Tennessee, Tennessee Tech and Murray State have some rebuilding to do.

Southwestern Louisiana, once a football never-do-well in the Gulf States Conference, has struck it rich lately with two championships in the last three years.

Russ Faulkinberry's Cajuns could reach the high cotton again this year with five all-conference players returning from last season's Grantland Rice Bowl entry. Quarterback Robbie Juul and running back Roland Henry are the best backs.

Northwestern Louisiana has only one returning offensive back, but he's speedster Don Johnson, who averaged 63 yards per carry in 1970. The blockers are led by two-time all-league guard Bobby Kneak.

Larry Grissom is closing in on the GSC's all-time rushing record at McNeese State and could spark the Cowboys to a title. Safety Billy Blakeman set a GSC record with 10 interceptions as a freshman and will lead the defense.

All America halfback Joe Profit is gone at Northeast Louisiana and the Indians will bank on the league's No. 2 passer, Allen Taylor, and a rugged offensive line built around tackles Roy Peters and all-GSC Gil Matherne.

Louisiana Tech plummeted from first place to the cellar last year and tries to climb back up with quarterback Ken Lantrip and end Eric Johnson.

Southeastern Louisiana will be rebuilding on defense, but quarterback Mark Varisco and back Darrell Beard lead a veteran offensive unit.

For the first time in more than 20 years, the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association becomes a 12-member conference. Six schools withdrew to form another league.

Virginia State College, the 1970 champion, is the favorite to repeat during 1971 in the revamped setup.

Johnson C. Smith, winner of the Southern Division and beaten in the conference by only Virginia State, should be the challenger again. Elizabeth City, Norfolk State, Shaw and Virginia Union are teams to watch.

In every Mason-Dixon Conference football race in the 1960s, the league championship was not settled until the traditional finale between Randolph-Macon and Hampden-Sydney. Such was the case in the first football season of the new decade, and such will probably be the case in 1971.

Hampden-Sydney's Tigers combined the nation's stingiest defense with a tough ball control offense to win the 1970 title. The Tigers topped Randolph-Macon in the season's final game and went on to participate in the NCAA's College Division Knute Rockne Bowl. It was the second successive year a Mason-Dixon team received the Rockne bid.

Hampden-Sydney may have too much for anyone else in the league in 1971. The Tigers remain strong defensively and welcome back experienced performers offensively. Junior linebacker Mike Leidy and shifty running back Tracy Powers will lead the Bengal attack.

Randolph-Macon will pose the big threat to H-S if coach Ted Keller can find someone to catch the aerials of all-conference quarterback Doug Toan. The Yellow Jackets must also mend their defensive line. To do so, they may have to hope for a talented crop of freshmen.

Towson State could surprise. The Tigers are talented and welcome back performers with two years of varsity experience including quarterback Al Dodds. Bridgewater and Western Maryland are rebuilding.

Washington University coach Dick Martin's "youth campaign" paid off with a share of the College Athletic Conference championship last year, and his Battlin' Bears are the favorites to win it all this year. Almost the entire offense, featuring power-runners Stan Gardner and Joe Madison, returns.

Co champion Southwestern must rebuild its fine defensive unit, but Ken LeBlanc forms a good nucleus by himself. The Lynx offense, with quarterback Steve Warren, and backs Herman Morris and Ralph Allen, will be formidable.

Centre also returns almost its entire team. Veteran linemen are in abundance in the form of Tony Olinger on defense and Joe Costanzo on offense, plus defensive back Jeff Block. Also returning is the entire starting offensive backfield, led by quarterback Harry Sykes.

Washington and Lee boasts one of the nation's premier college division passers in junior Steve Fluharty, but must find someone for him to throw to. The Generals lose the country's No. 1 receiver in end Steve Mahaffey.

Sewanee's venerable Shirley Majors has fallen on hard times the last two years and suffered through unusual losing seasons. The outlook is not good for reversal of the trend.

HARDLY SEEMS FAIR, but Ohio State middle guard Jim Stillwagon (68) got used to being double-teamed most of last season as he is here by Minnesota's Paul Tollefson and Bob Veldman (53). Stillwagon's line play helped Buckeyes down Gophers, 28-8.

Big Ten Eyes Break In Miami Cycle But Michigan, Notre Dame Favored

By PAT HARMON

*Sports Editor, The Cincinnati Post
Director, Football Writers' Association of America*

Michigan and Notre Dame expect to have the best college football teams in the Midwest in 1971. But the big story may be the attempt by two new coaches to overturn tradition.

Successful football coaches run in cycles. In the 1930s, the Knute Rockne cult from Notre Dame gave the game a record number of coaches. They were scattered in every section of the country, and their names were Thomas, Kizer, Phelan, Madigan, Stuhldreher, Crowley, Layden, Leahy, Edward, Anderson, Bachman, Chevigny, and so on.

The next generation saw a takeover by the men from the staff of Earl Blak at Army. This was followed by a time by the men trained by Robert Neyland at Tennessee.

TODAY THE CHAMPION IS MIAMI OF OHIO. Thirteen ex-Miami men hold head coaching jobs. This number is unmatched by any other school. These men either played or coached at Miami.

Their style has succeeded in every section of the country, and especially in the Midwest. Miami itself only recently was declared a major school for NCAA statistical purposes. But the last four Miami coaches before the present one were Woody Hayes, now at Ohio State, Ara Parseghian, now at Notre Dame, John Pont, at Indiana and Bo Schembechler, at Michigan.

Pat Harmon has covered 300 college football games in a career as sports editor in three mid-western cities, during which he has reported every major U.S. sports event, from Honolulu to Miami.

The Cincinnati Post's top sports man has written a daily column since 1942 and is contributing sports editor of World Book Encyclopedia. He is one of nine sports editors listed in Who's Who in America.

Harmon attended the University of Illinois and took his first sports editor job in Champaign, going from there to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, then to Cincinnati. He works a four-state area pursuing his hobby of public speaking.

All four went on to become national Coach of the Year, as selected by their fellow counterparts. The last four teams to represent the Big 10 in the Rose Bowl have been led by someone from the Miami coaching group.

NOW THE BIG 10 has taken on two new coaches, and they will be trying to drive a wedge into this Miami syndrome. If they succeed, it could be the best story of the year in college football.

Illinois has hired Bob

G

BALANCING ACT-Bill Willingham of Bradley finds it impossible to maintain balance with one foot in the grip of Wayne State defender, who hangs on for dear life. Doing little to assist teammate is Doug Steele. 6 ft. Wayne thumped Braves, 34-17.

Blackman, a Southern California graduate who gained a national reputation at Dartmouth. Iowa has taken on Francis X. Lauterbur, who graduated from Mount Union College and made a name coaching at Toledo.

Both have good prospects for 1971. However, it would truly be an upset if either does as well as the men at Michigan (Schembechler is 17-4) and Notre Dame (Parseghian is 58-10) in 1971.

The Irish won 10 of 11 last year including a 24-11 Cotton Bowl victory over Texas that propelled them into the final No. 2 national ranking, behind Nebraska, in the polls which included post-season games.

Notre Dame lost all-America guard Larry McNardo and other talented men, but 13 of last year's starting 22 are back.

THERE IS A DEFINITE NEED for a quarterback. But remember, in the past when Parseghian had a field general opening, he came up with a Terry Hanratty and a Joe Theismann. With the latter now gone, a Brown could become the first Black to quarterback the Green. Sophomore Cliff Brown is pushing veterans Jim Bulger and Pat Steenberge for the signal post.

Larry Parker showed late-season signs of brilliance as a sophomore in 1970, and will team with hard-running John Cieszkowski as ball carriers. Tom Gatewood is an all-America receiver if they get the ball to him.

While the Irish offense is unsettled, the defense which unhooked the 'Horns, is solid. Three of the front four return. The trio of Walt Patulski, Mike Kadish and Greg Marx is one of the best in college ball. The line-backing is a solid area and an intact secondary is headed by all-America candidate Clarence Ellis.

MICHIGAN WILL BE A BIG 10 TITLE CONTENDER if replacements can be found at quarterback and on the defensive front wall. Sophomores Kevin Casey and Tom Slade are the best quarterback bets. But the team's real offensive threat will be all-America running back Billy Taylor, who missed spring practice but will be healthy for the season opener.

Glenn Doughty provides veteran running and pass receiving ability with sophomore Harry Banks and junior Alan (Cowboy) Walker pushing for starting spots. Sophomore Ed Shuttleworth (235) may be the fullback.

There are big Wolverines up front in all-conference Guy Mardock (center) and Reggie McKenzie (guard). The defense will be rebuilt around end Mike Keller, linebacker Mike Taylor and safety Tom Darden.

At Iowa, Lauterbut will be hard-pressed to produce immediate football success similar to what he left behind at Toledo. Kyle Skogman, a part-time starter in 1970, is his quarterback with challenges from non-lettermen Frank Sunderman and several sophomores.

However, the running game will be sharp with all-conference performer Levi Mitchell and powerful fullbacks Frank Hohnes and Steve Penney back. Craig Clemens returns on defense, but the lines will be young.

THE ILLINOIS REVIVAL PROGRAM should proceed at a faster pace now that Blackman, noted for his wide-open style of play, has come to Champaign. The freshmen were unbeaten in 1970 and the varsity was dominated by underclassmen. Blackman made numerous position switches in the spring.

Quarterback Mike Wells faces a real challenge from 1969 starter Steve Livas, who dropped off the squad last year but was given a new lease on life by Blackman. The rushing game will feature Darrell Robinson and a pair of quick sophomores, John Wilson and Ed Jenkins.

The top returning offensive lineman is junior Larry McCarren, switched to center from tackle. Garvin Roberson, a two-sport sensation as a freshman, is considered a cinch to open at split end. Most of the defensive starters return, but many will have a tough scramble to keep their jobs. Tackles Tab Bennett and converted fullback Ted Singleton are strong and quick. Fleet Willie Osley will strengthen a slow secondary.

IT SEEMS UNUSUAL FOR A BIG 10 SEASON to begin without Ohio State being tabbed the favorite. But the Buckeyes graduated the great class of players who began winning championships in 1968 as sophomores, then just missed in 1969 with a loss to Michigan and again in 1970 when Stanford spoiled things with a 27-17 Rose Bowl victory.

Still, they brought Woody's record up to seven conference crowns in the last 17 years. Only Fielding Yost at Michigan (10), won more titles in the league. Bob Zuppke at Illinois had seven and A. A. Stagg at Chicago and Bernie Bierman at Minnesota six each.

TAKING THE RIGHT OPTION Minnesota quarterback Craig Carr finds running room to hold teammate John Margison (25) who blocking Nebraska's Jerry Murrtaugh as Doug Johnson and Jim Anderson (15) undertake pursuit. Gophers boxed, 35-10.

Can a winner be built at Columbus now that five all-Americans including quarterback Rex Kern are gone? Hayes hopes so as he gives converted defensive back Don Lamka a shot at Kern's vacated slot. Soph Morris Bradshaw is pressing Rick Galbos and Jim Bledsoe as starting runners.

Center Tom Delcone should get due recognition this season as he anchors the blocking for a flock of newcomers. The vaunted defense will rebuild around linebacker Stan White and back Harry Howard. The knee of tackle George Hasenohrl, injured in spring practice, will bear watching.

Purdue, coming back after its first losing season in 14 years, hopes to get more consistent quarterbacking and avoid key injuries. Chuck Piebes and Gary Danielson shared the signal calling in 1970, but Piebes has been shifted to the defensive secondary.

Otis Armstrong, who broke Leroy Keyes' rushing record last year, is the best of a speedy group of backs. He missed spring drills because of an operation, but will see heavy duty this fall. Darryl Stingley, shifted from split end, will take some of the heat off Armstrong. Sophomore speedsters Bob Herrick and Skip Petersen would like a chance. Veteran Ron North is fighting off 6-4, 245-pound Archie Highler at fullback.

Guard Tom Luken and tight end Ashley Bell are offensive stickouts. Jim Teal anchors the defense at linebacker with support from middle guard Greg Bingham and massive (6-6, 265) tackle Dave Butz.

Michigan State could be the sleeper this year with solid returning veterans, a good sophomore crop and a half dozen former starters who missed the 1970 season with injuries. One of these is standout Ron Curl who blocked five kicks and was all-conference in 1969.

HANDSTAND SHOWOFF—No, Colorado's Ward Walsh is not trying to make the Buffs gymnastics team, as camera catches his perfect one-arm handstand against Indiana. He was even more impressive on his feet, contributing 126 yards rushing to 16-9 CU win.

SITTING PRETTY, Dayton defensive back Jim Frazier takes time out to relax atop fallen form of Ohio University end Greg Hull, who glares at loose ball. Dayton's Jim Howard (56) is unconcerned. Ohio won, 17-14, on field goal with eight seconds left.

Leading rusher is Eric (The Flea) Allen and the two solid quarterbacks, Mike Rasmussen and George Mihaiu are back. A healthy Jesse Williams could return to the backfield in 1971.

Three-sport star Brad Van Felt could gain honors from his rover slot. Top newcomers are fullback-linebacker Paul Manderino, halfback Bruce Anderson and tight end-defensive end Bill Chada.

PILING OUT OF LAST PLACE, Wisconsin had its finest campaign since 1963 under new coach John Jardine. Keying the Badger hopes will be quarterback Neil Graff, who led the Big 10 in passing accuracy, and his primary target, tight end Larry Mialik who caught 10 TD passes over 40 yards.

Fullback Alan Thompson has returned to good health and Rufus Ferguson and Lance Moon are starting halfback possibilities. Speedster Greg Johnson has been shifted to defensive back to team with Badger interception record holder Neovia Greyer.

Minnesota hopes to rebound from an off-year with Big 10 total offense leader Craig Curry back at quarterback. Sophomore John King may break into the starting backfield with Ernie Cook. Doug Kingsriter is the best of a trio of veteran receivers, but offensive line help is needed from sophomores and returning non-starters. Outstanding linebacker Bill Light and promising tackle Clayton Scheuer shine on defense.

INDIANA WON ONLY ONCE IN 1970, and the last time the Hoosiers did that (1966), they came up with surprising sophomores the next year and went to the Rose Bowl. A repeat in 1972 hinges on getting a good quarterback.

Greg Brown, Dan Grossman and Ted McNulty are vying for the signal calling job. Returnees Greg Harvey and Roger Davidson are the best of the running backs. Steve Porter, with a 93-yard punt return in 1970, Glenn HOLY TOLEDO!—Bowling Green linemen Earl Hargrove (60) and Jack McKenzie are outflanked by quarterback Chuck Ealey, whom they may yet sanctify at Toledo. He has led the Rockets to two-season 22-0 record, after an unbeaten (31-0) prep career.

Scolnik and newcomers Carl Barziluskas (6-7, 280) and George Heaton at tackles and fullback Ken St. Pierre are Hauser hopes.

ALEX AGASE, NAMED COACH-OF-THE-YEAR by the Football Writers' Association in 1970 after driving Northwestern to a second place tie in the Big 10, loses the conference's MVP, Mike Adamle and some key offensive linemen, but returns topnotch quarterback Maury Daigneau and the league's top receiver, Barry Pearson and catching mates Jim Lash and Steve Harris.

The nation's No. 2 pass defense has been strengthened with split end Jerry Brown being moved to the secondary to team with Eric Hutchinson and Jack Dustin. Huge tackle Jim Anderson (6-6, 250), keys the defense.

Toledo, trying to extend the nation's longest winning streak (23 games) among major colleges, will be looking for a third straight Mid-American Conference championship under new coach Jack Murphy.

Standout quarterback Chuck Ealey, who had only nine passes intercepted in 263 attempts last year, threw for 2,111 yards. He and favorite target Don Fair (76 grabs for 893 yards) are back. Mel Long is a top lineman.

MIAMI HAS GONE 28 YEARS without a losing season, and 21 returning lettermen could keep that string alive. Among the best are tailback Dave Richards, who may be switched to split end, promising soph fullback-tailback Bob Hitchens and defensive tackle Dick Dougherty.

Junior Bill Gary, who rushed for 1,065 yards last season, will spark a rugged Ohio University running game. Split end Bobby Allen, a top kick return man and linebacker Jack Leveck are among .8 starters back.

Kent State hasn't had a winning season since 1960 but new coach Don James hopes to change all that in 1971. A pair of trackmen 235-pound Al Schoterman and Len Turner are counted upon heavily. Schoterman, who will be tried at fullback already holds two NCAA weight records (35-pound ball and hammer). Turner, a 95 speedster, is a wide receiver. Fred Blosser, all-MAC at center, returns for his senior season.

ASIDE FROM TOLEDO'S EALEY the league's only other experienced quarterback is Western Michigan's Ted Grignon. The school's career total offense leader is back along with the conference rushing king, fullback Roger Lawson Offensive guard Larry Ulmer had a good soph season.

Bowling Green suffered through its first losing season in 16 years in 1970 at 2-6-1. Paul Miles, a 190-pound sophomore who helped the frosh to an unbeaten season, bears watching. The tailback teams with wingback Bill Pittman, a triple threat in kickoff and punt returns and receiving. Denny Maupin at center is the only returning offensive lineman.

Among Midwest independents, the best prospects are at Cincinnati. The Bearcats return Steve Cowan and Albert Johnson, a pair of hard-running backs who accounted for 2 000 yards in 1970.

If anyone gains more yardage than that this fall, it may be Gary Kosins at Dayton. He averaged 38 carries per game in 1970, gained 1,172 yards and scored five touchdowns in one game.

Marshall is starting anew after a plane crash wiped out almost its entire team and coaching staff in 1970 following a game against East Carolina. New coach Jack Lengyel likes sophomore quarterback David Walsh. Two promising wide receivers are Jerry Arrasith and Sidney Bell. Although veteran Nate Ruffin needed spring surgery, the defensive secondary remains the team's strong point.

Xavier is optimistic despite successive 1-9 seasons. Coach Dick Selcer plans to have quarterback Paul Smith put the ball in the air a lot.

Northern Illinois, 3-7, in 1970, opens at Wisconsin and will have only eight seniors on the squad of 60. Tom Wittum is a good punter.

SHOESTRING TACKLE IT AIN I—Running back intercepted pass, Northern Illinois safety Norm Nuzbach has wind cut off by unidentified Buffalo foe, with NIU's Dan DeVitto (47) and Bulls' Scott Harlan trailing. Huskies won wild one, 43-26.

Wittenberg went unbeaten in Ohio Conference play last season, but was forced to forfeit all its games at season's end when it was discovered the Tigers had an ineligible player.

This left Capital with the lone unblemished mark and the Crusaders will be minus only seven seniors with veteran quarterback Charlie Hess, fullback Geoff Schmidt and halfback Colby Byrum coming back.

Wesleyan, co-champion with Capital, must replace one member of the offensive backfield and four in the front wall. Quarterback Gary Vandemia and wideback Jeff Wise give the Scots depth.

Muskingum loses quarterback Bill McKay and there aren't any experienced backup men around. Top rusher Dave Hayes is back. There are many missing at Mount Union, but the Defense is still solid.

Denison coach Keith Piper is looking forward to a "Big Red" year with nearly every line back, including the hoops leading rusher Ed Feyer. All-conference linebacker Doug Jones keys the always tough Marquette defense.

Former seniors left Backus-Wallace, but signal caller Ron Poland and receivers Tom Graham and Willie Avery are around. Ohio Wesleyan returns the league's leading passer, Steve Chase, but Ottoborn loses QB Norm Luker. Oberlin, Heidelberg, Kentron and Wittenberg will be rebuilding.

There's an unusual amount of optimism lingering around Indiana Collegiate Conference football camps this fall. When coaches fail to dwell on what's wrong, the implication has to be that pigskin talent can't be too bad.

Ironically, defending champion Evansville may have the hardest rebuilding job, having placed seven seniors on the all-conference teams last fall.

Coach Jim Byers has seen most of his big, awesome linemen go. He has therefore a substantial rebuilding job to do on the 1970 undefeated champs. Junior quarterback Randy Mattingly should help in that direction.

St. Joseph's was runnerup last year. ICC Coach of the Year, Bill Jennings, has running backs available, but he needs help on the offensive line, particularly receivers. St. Joe quarterback Terry Campbell is back and the Pumas' defensive unit, the ICC's stingiest last fall, returns nearly intact.

Sophomore Steve Clayton, who set several passing records last year, will direct Butler's attack that will be minus two of last season's leading ground gainers and two three-year veterans at ends. The Bulldogs will have 18 lettermen, however, for coach Bill Sylvester.

Valparaiso lost only eight seniors from last year's club that finished 5-3-1. Five Crusaders who were all-conference are coming back to account for coach Norm Amundsen's cheerfulness.

DePauw's defense should be its strong suit again with 11 of its 15 defensive linemen returning, including all-conference tackle Wayne Perry and middle guard Jim Ceaser.

Wabash College and Indiana Central will not be eligible in 1971.

Alma and Adrian will be the top contenders for the MIAA football title again in 1971, with Kalamazoo close behind.

Alma, regaining a co-championship in 1970 after being dethroned in 1969, lost a fine senior tackle in Larry Gregory, but the Scots appear to have enough depth to be in the race again in 1971.

Adrian, whose 1970 co-title marked the first Bulldog grid crown since 1911, has excellent depth returning.

Kalamazoo's Larry Pfaff, fourth in the nation in small college passing in 1970, returns along with several fine receivers to bolster the Hornet hopes.

Carroll climbed to second place in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin last year with a squad that included only three seniors, therefore the favorite's role this season goes to the Pioneers.

Carthage, champion each of the past two years, however, has enough back to make another run at the pennant and Illinois Wesleyan could challenge if it finds linemen to help a corps of talented passers, receivers and runners.

Milikin could move into contention. Augustana may be in for a rebuilding year after graduation of its top quarterback, Ken Anderson. Elmhurst and Wheaton are question marks and North Central seems doomed to another building campaign.

Of the nine returning all-conference selections, Carthage has four. They are offensive guard Gary Petersen, halfback Curt Whipple, defensive tackle Dan Cassidy and linebacker Frank Rus. But the key to the Redmen's ground-minded attack is crafty quarterback Craig Deaton.

If youth is to be served, Michigan Tech University may be difficult to dislodge from the summit of the Northern Intercollegiate Conference. The Huskies won the NIC title outright in 1969 but had to share the top rung with Minnesota Morris and St. Cloud State in 1970.

The Huskies built an 8-1 overall mark with a roster staffed primarily by underclassmen. Only three seniors were listed on the 1970 roster, and coach Ted Kearly can expect the entire offensive array return next fall. Tech's offense will once again be triggered by fullback Larry Ras.

St. Cloud returns quarterback Greg Illav and his backfield playmates, but must replace much of its defense, headed by middle guard John Stadden. Minnesota-Morris returns a strong nucleus in the offensive backfield, directed by quarterback Tom Bergner.

Moorhead State challenged last season and may be a darkhorse in 1971. Winona State rebuilds under new coach Bob Kenster while Bemidji State and Southwest State face too many problems to contend this fall.

Concordia coach Jim Christopherson is establishing quite a name for himself in Minnesota football circles. The second-year coach has swept to two straight MIAA titles since the retirement of Jake Christianson.

Concordia, which edged Gustavus-Adolphus for the 1970 championship, lost eight starters to graduation including conference MVP, quarterback Dale Hertel, and four other all-league selections. Running back Kent Baldry and defensive tackle Bruce Larson head the 1971 squad.

Gustavus, champ in 1967 and 1968, is once again considered the team to beat. They lost their defensive secondary but have a host of experienced personnel back, including Rick Webb, Ron Dahlberg, Brian Robb and Gary Halvorsen.

St. John's, runnerup the last two years, also lost heavily to graduation. Flanker Dave Arnold and end Jim Krueh head the returnees list.

UM Duluth, the only conference team to beat Concordia, rates again as a contender with quarterback John Zupetz, Pete Furo and John Hartman.

Hamline and coach Dick Mulkern are facing problems with 15 lettermen gone. Dave Snedrud considered one of the best defensive ends in the country, and quarterback Kevin Casey should be the nucleus of the 1971 team.

Macalester has the makings of a fine team returning St. Thomas, with 19 regulars back, and Augsburg look expectantly ahead.

Washington & Jefferson should be the favorite to repeat as champion of the Presidents Athletic Conference this year. The Presidents return five all-league selections: quarterback Don Kasperik, ends Bob McLuckey and Bob Reck, line-backer Sam Carpenter and kicking specialist Bruce Hager.

Threatening the overthrow of the defending titlest will be Bethany in an attempt to improve upon its second place finish last season. Bethany stalwarts include running back Denrey Brandon, tackles Dan Swickard and Sam Radakovich and linebacker Chuck Carpeta.

Case-Western Reserve should improve in its second season of merged play behind the leadership of all-conference guard Pete Deschenes. John Carroll and Allegheny will be trying to move up out of the middle of the pack, while Thiel faces a strategic rebuilding campaign.

The league will take on a new look this year with the addition of Hiram College, switching from the Ohio Conference. Due to scheduling commitments, however, Hiram will not play enough games to qualify for the title.

Monmouth and Knox, the two Illinois entries in the Midwest Conference, should make a strong run at the 1971 title. But their No. 1 chore will be to unseat St. Olaf which will be gunning for its third straight crown behind record-setting all-conference halfback Ole Gunderson.

Monmouth, which has finished within a game or half-game of the title for three straight years, had a brace of all-conference men last season and should be tough again, going after the crown which has eluded the Scots since 1934.

Knox, in a stirring resurgence last fall, grabbed a tie for third with Ripon. Both Knox, in a rebuilding state, and Ripon, which was champion for five of six years prior to 1969, rank as challengers.

Big Eight MVC Clubs Seeing Red It's Nebraska, Oklahoma, Louisville

By BOB HENTZEN

*Sports Editor, The Topeka Capital-Journal
Director, Football Writers' Association of America*

"This stupid conference," muttered an Iowa State footballer to a group of Big Eight Skywriters a couple of years ago. "If you don't improve 300 per cent every year, you could end up on the bottom again."

Well, it's still that way in the Big Eight not only for Iowa State, but everybody hopeful of climbing the conference ladder in 1971. You see, six clubs are looking up and seeing red a couple of big, Big Reds.

One is Nebraska, the national champion of 1970 and apparently equipped to take up where it left off New Year's night in Miami. That 17-12 victory over Louisiana State convinced the pollsters of what coach Bob Devaney had been saying all along "We ought to be No. 1."

THE OTHER IS OKLAHOMA, which became a very good team shortly after Chuck Fairbanks switched to sophomores and the wishbone-T following the third game. Only six regulars are missing from the 1970 outfit.

Devaney actually has less retooling to do than a year ago when the defense was suspect. It turned out to be great, (NU yielded 12 foes 189 points, many of those after the issue was decided) and the offense better than advertised (426 points). There are 36 lettermen, 13 of those starters.

Devaney called the 1970 crew his best, a mouthful because he's won five titles and shared another during his nine years at Nebraska. His record is an enviable 79-18-1. Little wonder 67,000 fans jam Memorial Stadium for every game. That will happen seven times in 1971—another plus for the Cornhuskers, who'll play a novel 12-game schedule, finishing up at Hawaii Dec. 4.

WHILE THE LOOK at the top remains the same, the new look in the Big Eight will be supplied by two coaches. Don Fambrough at Kansas and Al Onofrio at Missouri hardly are new faces. Both have been Bob Hentzen has been in the middle of the Big Eight Conference for all of his 38 years.

Born in Nebraska and graduated from the University of Oklahoma, he first served on the sports staff of the Oklahoma City Oklahoman-Times.

Arriving at the Topeka Capital-Journal 13 years ago, Hentzen assumed the reins of sports editor in 1968. He writes a daily column and administers an eight-man staff, a partial explanation of why he's still a bachelor, he discloses.

The Nebraska-Oklahoma-Kansas journalist has thrice been named Sports-writer of the Year in the state of Kansas.

around the league longer than Devaney, now the dean of the head coaches.

Fambrough had served 19 terms as an assistant when tabbed to succeed UCLA-bound Pepper Rodgers. "I didn't know what would come first—that (the head job) or Social Security," he quipped. Missouri went the same route after Dan Devine left in selecting Onofrio, a 13-year staff member.

The Missouri Valley Conference, striving to come up in the football world, will have two new entries to spice its title race, making it a seven-team affair. The newcomers are Drake, the oldest MVC member but one which dealt itself out of the league gridiron competition two decades ago, and West Texas State. New Mexico State also is a new member, but won't play enough conference foes to qualify for the crown.

COLORFUL LEE CORSO hoisted Louisville to the top of the Missouri Valley stack in only two seasons and the Cardinals retain enough talent to make another run for the championship. Billy (Spook) Murphy's Memphis State club also looms as a Valley goodie with Tulsa a darkhorse.

Winless Wichita State frightened both Louisville (34-24) and Tulsa (21-12) in its "Second Season." That's when the Shockers were playing mostly freshmen after an Oct. 2 air tragedy in Colorado claimed the lives of 31, including 14 of their best players and coach Ben Wilson.

The Midlands furnished four bowl teams in college football's 102nd season. Nebraska was the only winner, but Oklahoma managed a 24-24 tie with Alabama in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl and Louisville had a 24-24 standoff with Long Beach State in the Pasadena Bowl. Colorado was the lone loser, 17-3, to Tulane in the Liberty Bowl tilt.

The Big Eight undoubtedly will have a club or two or three going a-bowling this time around, too, and it's always a good bet that anyone with bowl credentials has an all-America or so in its lineup.

YOU CAN START WITH COLORADO defensive end Herb Orvis. The 230-pounder coach Eddie Crowder recruited off a service team in Germany was an all-America last year as a junior. Then keep an eye on a couple of junior backs—Oklahoma's Joe Wylie and Nebraska's Johnny Rodgers.

Wylie, a devout Baptist who starts each day with Bible reading before going to the classroom where he's a straight-A student, scored 13 touchdowns as a rookie. He averaged 6.2 yards per carry in gaining 984. He also punted for a 38.8-yard average.

Rodgers also is an eye-catching type. Tacklers didn't have much luck with him as he scored 11 touchdowns while catching 39 passes for 710 yards and averaging 6.0 yards on 39 rushes from a slothback position. With kickoff and punt returns, he accounted for 1,674 yards as a sophomore.

Also, don't forget Ron (Po) James of New Mexico State. He's close to replacing Steve Owens (Oklahoma) as college football's all-time rushing king. He starts with 3,114 yards, 753 shy of the record.

THEN THERE'S NEBRASKA QUARTERBACK Jerry Tagge. All he did last year was throw for 1,536 yards and 12 touchdowns, connecting on 61 per cent of his passes. But, shucks, he may not even be the best quarterback on the Nebraska team. Van Brownson also returns and Devaney long ago gave up deciding which of the two should be No. 1, so he uses 'em both.

The presence of Tagge and Brownson leaves Deevaney with another pleasant problem to contemplate—what to do with David Hamm, the south-paw blue-chip quarterback from the unbeaten freshman team.

It should be mentioned that Nebraska did lose some people who'll be missed—like all-America tackle Bob Newton, all-America linebacker Jerry Murtaugh, all-conference back Joe Orduna, all-league guards Donnie McGhee and Ed Penard, all-conference tackle Dave Walline, split end Guy Ingles and fullback Dan Schneiss, a bruising blocker.

BUT THE 'HUSKERS ARE FORTIFIED with standouts. Offensively, there's Jeff Kinney, who gained 699 yards sharing tailback duty with Orduna, tight end Jerry List, guard Dick Rupert and center Doug Dumler. Defensively, there's end Willie Harper, the Orange Bowl's outstanding lineman, tackle Larry Jacobson and the solid secondary of Joe Blahak and Jim Anderson at the corners and safety Bill Kosch (seven interceptions).

If Nebraska doesn't triumph in 1971, Oklahoma is the logical candidate to do so. Two offensive linemen and four from the defensive platoon are the only losses from last season's runner-up 7-4 Sooner club.

While he doesn't have to worry about bodies Fairbanks (30 13-1 at OU), does have to develop a passing attack to compliment his ground game.

Quarterback Jack Mildren doesn't lack an arm—he hit 54 of 110, including scoring bombs of 75, 60 and 34 yards but his strength lies in slick running and ball handling on the triple option. Besides Wylie, he has dependable fullback Leon Crosswhite and dangerous halfback Greg Pruitt.

Juniors the likes of center Tom Brahoney, guard Dean Unruh and tight end Al Chandler will be opening the holes up front. Defensively the Sooner studs include linebackers Steve Aycock and Gary Baccus and 230-pound Raymond Hamilton, who saw sophomore action at three positions.

The Big Eight didn't have a patsy last year, illustrated by its 20-10-1 record against outside opposition. A similar situation exists again. But if Nebraska and Oklahoma are as good on the field as they are on paper, the other six will scrap for the remaining two first division places.

COLORADO WILL BE RESPECTED, although it will be breaking in a new quarterback and has but 10 of its top 22 returning. There won't be two more punishing runners around than 6-5, 225-pound Jon Keyworth and 6-3, 220-pound John Tarver. They'll be in the same backfield after sharing duty last season when they combined for 1,209 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Jim Bratten, the quarterback who guided the Buffs to the Big Eight's rushing and total offense titles, is gone as is Paul Arendt, who decided to pass up his last season of eligibility to concentrate on pre-medicine studies. Ken Johnson, who Crowder hints could be the best he's ever had, looms as their likely successor. He will have a game-breaking target in Clifford Branch, a .09.3 speedster and conference punt return leader.

Kansas plans to go back to the winged-T offense that took it to the Orange Bowl three seasons ago, although Fambrough might wind up spreading receivers all over the field if strong-armed sophomore David Jaynes wins the quarterback job from incumbent Dan Heck.

Defense did in the Jayhawks a year ago when they yielded a whopping average of 413.7 yards per start. It's still a question mark, although improvement is likely if linebacker Ken Page is recovered from surgery and if former quarterback Phil Basler works out at tackle. End Gery Palmer and back Lee Hawkins are standouts.

John Riggins is gone, but Steve Conley and Vince O'Neil are seasoned runners who benefit from 275-pound guard Bobby Childs and center Mike McCoy. Marvin Foster, Lucius Turner and Xerk White are fleet receivers.

Missouri's cupboard of talent may not be quite as well stocked as usual with backs Joe Moore and Jim Harrison, receiver Mel Gray and tackle Rocky Wallace among the missing. Onofrio inherited only three offensive and five defensive starters from an injury-hampered 5-6 club.

The Tigers didn't have the success with the two-quarterback system that Nebraska did. Both Chuck Roper and Mike Farmer return, but they're coming off shoulder and knee surgery, respectively.

Jack Bastable, who punts, placekicks and barbers for his teammates, took on added chores as a runner late in his sophomore campaign and did fine. Receiver John Henley, defensive tackles John Cowan and Steve Mizer and linebacker Sam Britts are caliber holdovers.

Oklahoma State fielded what was called its best freshman team ever and those moving up to the varsity can expect to see immediate action—especially if they are offensive linemen. Coach Floyd Gass has to replace the works there. Otherwise, three-fourths of the backfield and seven defensive starters return from a 4-7 team.

If Gass wants to pass, which he will, his flinger will be Tony Pounds, who accounted for 1,871 yards and 15 touchdowns. If he wants a big play, the man he'll get the ball to is 5-9 Dick Graham, who was employed as a flanker, tailback and even quarterback as a junior. If he wants a quality runner, his man is tailback Bobby Cole.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE is an unidentifiable Arizona State griddier, but he's got the fumbled football that head-to-head Mo Latimore of Kansas State and Mike Fanucci (84) of ASU are trying to recover. Sun Devils outscored Wildcats, too, 35-13.

The Cowpoke defense is headed by 229 pound Gilbert Barnes, linebacker Joe Crews and backs Tom Carraway and Lee Stover.

Kansas State's losses (14 of the top 22) were severe, including quarterback Lynn Dickey, who guided the Wildcats to their first winning season (6-5) since 1954. But coach Vince Gibson isn't singing a sad song. He believes a flock of redshirts, sophomores, junior college transfers and 24 lettermen will keep K-State competitive.

They are particularly excited in Manhattan over a couple of sophomores with jets in their shoes, backs Isaac Jackson and Larry Johnican. K-State's image probably will change from a passing to a running team. Leading rusher Bill Butler returns and Dennis Morrison is Dickey's likely successor.

RECEIVING, THOUGH, WILL BE GOOD. Sonny Yarnell, who missed the last five games with a back injury, returns along with Mike Creed and John Goerger. Quality is represented in line holdovers center Steve Beyrle and guard Mo Latimore on offense and linebacker Joe Colquitt and tackles Charles Clarrington and Leo Brouhard on defense.

Iowa State is steadily improving under Johnny Majors but the results haven't yet been displayed in the Big Eight standings. The jump will come if Majors continues to recruit folks like Jerry Moses, who never played in a losing game in high school. This lad averaged 10.8 yards per rush and scored 37 touchdowns as a prep senior.

The offense isn't in bad shape with seven starters returning, including quarterbacks Dean Carlson and George Amundson. The latter, a track weightman in the spring, moves into a running spot on occasion. Defensively the Cyclones may be vulnerable. Tackle Harold Bassett and linebackers Keith Schroeder and Ken Caratelli are the only holdovers.

HELP!—With no aid in sight, Mankato State quarterback John Marx needs a stratagem for coping with approaching North Dakotans Jim LeClair 54, John Vuklesh 84, Greg Schneider (center) and Jerry Skogmo (33). Mankato took 35-19 pasting from Sioux SLIPPIN' AND SLIDIN'—Cincinnati, defensive tackle Bob Bell and Louisville quarterback John Madeya (in white and in Bell's arms), glide along Cincy's artificial turf, preceded by a spray of water, during soggy battle won by Louisville, 28-14.

Missouri Valley teams, like those in the Big Eight, are red-eyed from a hangover of too much Louisville. The Cardinals retain 13 of the top 22, including eight defensive specialists from their 8-3 club.

Linebacker Tom Jackson, a 220-pounder, was all-league after sophomore heroics that included 131 tackles and three fumble recoveries. Quarterback John Madeya returns from a banner year of 1,750 passing yards and 11 touchdowns, but sophomore Mike Campbell challenges. Corso also may find a spot for another soph, 230-pound defensive end Reggie Brown.

HOLDOVER STANDOUTS FROM THE TITLE CLUB are tailback Tom Jesukaitis, split end Tony Burdock, defensive tackle Larry Ball, linebacker Paul Mattingly and cornerback Joe Welch.

Memphis State, rudely jolted from the Valley's top perch by Louisville, is capable of turning the tables if a schedule that includes South Carolina, Mississippi, Houston and Kansas State doesn't take its toll. Coach Murphy has 13 first-stringers available and a good sophomore harvest.

Paul (Skeeter) Cowen, who plays taller than 5-7, returns at tailback where he averaged six yards per carry as a junior. All-league tackle Mike Stark clears the way for him. Quarterback Rick Strawbridge must beat out sophomore John Robison to keep the job. Stan Davis, who missed a year with a back injury, figures in backfield plans. Eight defensive regulars are back, including stickout safety Charlie Babb.

TULSA, 6-4 LAST SEASON, also is in tough with Air Force, Tennessee, Florida State and Kansas State on its schedule. Coach Claude Gibson is armed with 15 regulars, though.

The defense particularly is solid, with veterans Ralph McGill and Jon Long in the secondary, Pedro Williams and Dick Blanchard at linebacker, Arthur Moore at end and 275-pound Wes Thompson at tackle. Drew Pearson may be the Hurricane quarterback or it could be JC transfer Todd Starks.

North Texas State found out how the other half lives when it slipped to 3-8 after 22-6-1 success in Rod Rust's previous three years. Rust declared all jobs open while looking at 23 junior college hopefuls.

Twelve starters return including 258-pound offensive tackle Steve Sullivan, linebacker Glynn Hachtel and defensive back Lyndon Fox.

DRAKE, PLAYING A NOT-THAT-SOFT SCHEDULE, finished 7-4 a year back and coach Jack Wallace has 17 starters returning.

The backfield, which returns intact, has some fellows with impressive figures. Jerry Heston, as a freshman, rushed for 1,175 yards, caught 35 passes and scored 17 touchdowns. Quarterbacks Dennis Redmond and Mike Grejbowski—each threw 13 TD strikes. Cornerback Bill McClintock and tackle Mike Samples are two-year defensive heroes.

West Texas State bows into the MVC with a new coach, Gene Mayfield, and only 10 starters from a 7-3 team.

Middle linebacker Billy McKinney, who has two tours in Viet Nam behind him, is a standout. Quarterback Ed Helwig returns along with a couple of favorite targets, split end Daryl Wynn and tight end Willie Walker.

WICHITA STATE MAY BENEFIT from the lessons learned by young quarterback Rick Baehr and receivers Bill Moore and Jim DeFontes. Coach Bob Seaman believes he's discovered some future winners from among those who picked up the pieces after the Shocker tragedy.

New Mexico State probably won't mind waiting a year before getting in the Valley race. The Aggies have some refurbishing to do with just 10 starters returning from a 4-6 club. Joe Pisacick, a 6-5 sophomore, probably will be the quarterback entrusted to launch some passes and, more importantly, hand the ball to James, so he can do his thing.

Co-champions have been the rule in MIAA football the last two seasons and every indication points to an equally close race in 1971.

Northeast Missouri, co-titlists in 1969 and 1970, lost most of their offense and will have a struggle to repeat. Central Missouri returns running back Ira Clemons from their 9-1 Pecan Bowl team. Clemons gained 1,002 yards in his sophomore campaign.

Southeast Missouri returns Rich Attig, who had the league's best rushing average in 1970. Lincoln University's youthful squad, 3-3 in their first year back in the conference, welcomes back a tested line and defense.

Missouri-Rolla, Southwest Missouri and Northwest Missouri look to experience as they hope to move up in the league standings.

The cry around the North Central Conference remains "Break up the Bison". It remains likely, however, that North Dakota State University will again be the pre-season favorite for their eighth straight title.

The Bison lost seven defensive regulars but only two from the offensive unit. Top returnees are guard Lyle Anderson and quarterback Mike Bentson, both Little all-Americans, split end Pete Lana, tackle Bob Erickson and defensive end Tom Marman. Head coach Ron Erhardt has a 46-3-1 record for five years.

North Dakota looks like the strongest of the contenders. The Sioux will rely on their defense led by two-time all-NCC back Dan Martinson and linemen Jim LeClair and Jerry Skogmo. Junior Mike Deutsch heads the running attack.

South Dakota loses all-American running back Steve Pelot but returns QB Tom Engelman and all-American guard Gene Macken.

Augustana is in the rebuilding stages of their program. Quarterback Randy Slobo and receivers Steve Mannie and Mike Khnednist are key players.

Morningside returns 16 starters and could contend in 1971. Mike Junck, fifth in the nation in total offense in 1969, is back at QB after a 1970 injury.

Northern Iowa hopes to rebound from one of its worst seasons in history. North Dakota State comes back with added experience for the 1971 chase.

The Southwest INCAA Dinner

Texas, Arkansas, Tech Saddled Up For Three-Horse Race To SWC Wire

By JIM TRINKLE

Sportswriter, The Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Director, Football Writers' Association of America

Now that Texas has THAT game out of its system, line 'em up in the other alley boys The Longhorns, Razorbacks and Red Raiders—those ring-tailed rowdies from Austin, Fayetteville and Lubbock—are prepared to play that Russian roulette game again.

In the survivor go the spoils. Meaning the Southwest Conference title and a Cotton Bowl game, and not the sort of spoiling Notre Dame pulled on Texas last New Year's day.

Sure and b'gorra, nothin' but the luck of the Eye-rish and Ara's Armenian rabbit's foot could have derailed Texas after 30 consecutive victories.

But Longhorn coach Darrell Royal could ask "How about Mike Bayer and Ray Dowdy and Tommy Woodward, my ever-lovin' leprecauns? What ever happened to their Irish luck?"

NOTRE DAME'S JAN 1 VICTIMS aren't whining over spilled Irish stew. They have had their innings. Neither is Arkansas despondent, although there was no bowl bid after a 9-2 season. And Texas Tech is eager to get back in harness after an 8-3 campaign under new coach Jim Carlen. It led to a Sun Bowl date with Georgia Tech, which the 'Jackets won, 17-9.

That's the order in which the SWC leaders hit the wire in 1970—Texas, Arkansas and Tech. There is no assurance of a re-run, though those three surely will be the curly wolves in this year's 100-yard wars.

Fourteen players who were starters through three years of Texas domination—one unanimous national crown ('69), one-and-a-half MacArthur Bowls as regular-season national monarch (Texas and Ohio State tied for the Bowl last year)—have run out of eligibility.

ARKANSAS SUFFERED sore graduation wounds, too. Three all-Americans and quarterback Bill Mont-

Jim Trinkle is a native Texan who attended the University of Oklahoma. But upon graduation in 1949, he hastened back to his homeland to work for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, where he's put in two hitches, the last one continuously since 1956.

A high spot of the Texan-Oklahoman-Texan's football beat is the annual Oklahoma-Texas game in the Cotton Bowl Under-standably, however, he declines to divulge where his allegiance lies.

Trinkle also covers golf and authors a daily column in the evening paper, contributes to numerous sports publications and has been published in "Best Sports Stories."

OPENING THE GATE, Southern Methodist's George Zoch (75) shoes Texas A&M's Max Bird out of the path of tailback Gary Hammond, who has taken handoff from Gary Carter (11) and hopes to drive past Aggie Dave Hoot (26). Mustangs succeeded, 6-3.

gomery were among them, but like Texas, the Razorbacks come back with a battery of quality players in 1971.

Until the University of Houston's admission to the conference as its ninth member, the Cougars were, as usual, to be in a class alone among the independents. They have 23 lettermen and a solid quarterback in Gary (Moon) Mullins—but they also must wait until 1976 to start football competition in the SWC.

The Longhorns return their elusive director of offense, Eddie Phillips. Charley Napper, the unflappable flinger who won Carlen's vote as a winner for Texas Tech, is back with another year's experience in a league that sounded offensive blasts heard across the plains.

Texas led the nation in scoring (41.2 points per game) and rushing offense (374.5-yard average) and stood fourth in total offense in 1970.

Arkansas was among the aerial pacemakers although the Porkers threw fewer passes than the other leaders. Frank Broyles' athletes incidentally, were on the receiving end of a 90-play rushing attack in their showdown with Texas, and no other team in the country—from the Green Bay Packers to Pop Warner Leaguers—took as many running shots from an enemy.

THE 24-11 COMEUPPANCE FROM NOTRE DAME was nothing to make Royal flick his heels. It only squared bowl accounts for the two. But Texas has risen above other depressions, and has the mules to recover again.

Start with Phillips, whose hateful chore last fall was to succeed James Street, who had whickered the 'Horns through two title marches. For Texas to win, Eddie had to produce. Eddie produced.

So firmly is Phillips entrenched as the Texas starter No. 2 quarterback Gary Keithley packed his duds and headed for Texas' El Paso branch. He was tired of blowing cobwebs off his pitching arm.

The returning players of national dimension besides Phillips (39 of 96 passes for 695 yards in '70) are halfback Jim Bertelsen (891 yards, 6.0 average), defensive tackle Dowdy, offensive tackle Jerry Sisemore, linebacker Stan Mauldin, safety Woodard and defensive halfback Bayer.

Texas again will use its wishbone-T (triple option) offense and 4-4-3 defense. Ara Parseghian credited Notre Dame's Cotton Bowl win to a defense that "mirrored" the wishbone, but how're you going to quit a system that lost only one of 31 games?

Royal answers: "We'll still dance with who brung us."

Arkansas has great expectations for junior quarterback Joe Ferguson. Joe has an arm that can throw a Kleenex through the Great Wall of China. He and 21 lettermen give Broyles a cozy feeling.

Junior Jon Richardson and senior fullback Russ Garber should emerge as wheelhorses in the Arkansas ground game. Richardson, indeed, arrived last year as a sophomore, averaging 4.3 yards in 104 carries. Garber averaged 5.2 on 81 attempts, but still must defend his position against Scott Binnion and junior college transfer Skipper DeBorde.

TWO OF FERGUSON'S SWIFTEST TARGETS are flanker Jim Hodge and split end Mike Reppond. Two years ago, as a Louisiana prep whiz, Fergy was the most romanced high school passer in the country. He heard sweet nothings from some of the most persuasive coaching swains in the business.

Playing behind Montgomery, Ferguson completed 56 per cent of 86 passes for 741 yards and four touchdowns.

Redshirt receiver Jack Ettinger also is well considered. Tackle Mike Kelson will be one of the nation's premier offensive linemen, and junior Archie Bennett can either play center or defense. Junior Dave Reavis is expected to be a fine defensive tackle or guard. Of the sophomores, Danny Rhodes likely will win a starting assignment at middle linebacker.

Corky Cordell, all-conference as a sophomore in 1970, will be an all-America possibility at safety this fall. Bill McClard will rank among the

UP AND OVER Houston's Robert Neuhouse hurtles into the end zone over prostrate teammate and beyond the desperate grab of Wake Forest safety Terry Kuharchek contributing six points to Cougars' 26-2 romp over Atlantic Coast Conference champions best kickers anywhere—he missed only one of 51 points after touchdown last year and kicked 10 of 15 field goals, including one from 60 yards.

Those who thought Carlen would be a lamb among the wolves as a coaching freshman in the SWC, won't admit it now. The former West Virginia football boss grabbed hold of the Raiders, told 'em to go to Sunday school and think positive. The results were immediate and remarkable.

After an upset loss to Mississippi State, the only smears on Tech's score-board were applied by the league bullies, Texas and Arkansas. The biggest factor in Tech's success was the blossoming of Napper as a thinking man's quarterback. He passed for 979 yards and nine TDs.

HE WILL HAVE STRONG BACKING this year from sophomore Jimmy Carmichael, the state's best prep quarterback in 1969. He accounted for 639 yards and seven touchdowns as a freshman.

Doug McCutchen returns with splendid credentials. SWC offensive Player of the Year as a 1970 sophomore. Doug was the first running back at Tech to gain more than 1,000 yards afoot in one season. He had 1,068.

Miles Langehennig, an impact runner hurt much of last year, is another good returnee. A sophomore certain to make his mark is James Mosley, a 197-pounder who had 428 yards on 80 carries and seven frosh TDs.

Aside from the 16 lettermen who turned in their uniforms, two important losses are halfback Danny Hardaway (a scholastic casualty) and 6-5 defensive tackle Cedric Jones, who quit school after a redshirt campaign. Texas Tech needs help at defensive tackle where all-SWC Wayne McDermand and Bob Mooney are among the missing.

LARRY MOLINARE IS A SAVAGE LINEBACKER. Other muscle comes from 6-4, 238-pounder Fred Perry, an offensive tackle, linebackers Mike Watkins and Donald Rives and top defensive back Ken Perkins.

Johnny Odom, the team's No. 1 catcher with 26 receptions for 331 yards, has another year. Robbie Best caught 24 passes for 298 yards, and from the freshman team, the Raiders get two good prospects in Andre Tillman

THAT'S INTERFERENCE, at least with each other. So much so that end zone pass, intended for Tennessee's Merlyn Hood or hidden teammate and being handled by SMU's Robert Popelka (top) and Pat Curry, fell incomplete. Vols took credit, 28-3.

POWER PLAY Texas Tech halfback Doug McCutchen charges for 10-yard gain behind bulldozing blocker Russell Ingram, who is making things miserable for SMU linebacker Sheranod Blount (35) and defensive tackle Rock Rollins. Tech triumphed, 14-10

(6-2, 222-pound tight end) and split end Paul Page

Carlen will give high school blue-chipper Joe Barnes a try at quarterback and halfback. As a freshman, he averaged 6.0 yards on 57 tries.

SMU will have the league's most versatile operative in quarterback Gary Hammond. Gary was an exciting player at split end as a soph and tailback as a junior while aerial ace Chuck Hixson was the quarterback. Hammond was a high school quarterback, but must feed off redshirt Keith Bobo and California passing star Casey Ortez.

"I PLAN ON STARTING," says the unshrinking Ortez, a 6-2, 190-pounder, who adds, "redshirt is the dirtiest word I've ever heard."

Two sure-fisted receivers are Ray Mapps and Randy Dossett. Rookie T. J. Hutchinson has varsity promise after a four-yard average aground and sparkling kicking, including a 52-yard field goal for the frosh.

Tackle George Zoch (6-3 230) and guard Tom Black (6-2, 220) have most of the gristle in the offensive line. The secondary seems firm with Robert Popelka, David Rogers, Alan Everest and Pat Curry.

Linebacker Dennis Howell, a prep all-stater as a running back, this year shifts to fullback for Hayden Fry's Mustangs.

One of the two new head coaches is Jim Pittman, who comes to TCU from Tulane. The Horned Frogs have been in a 10-year slump at the box office, which would indicate some poor seasons. It's a fair assumption.

Soon after Pittman's arrival, four black players—all starters—left school, citing reasons of social boredom and some "hairy" misunderstandings. But TCU has some fine athletes among 41 returning lettermen.

The key man is quarterback Steve Judy, who already has shattered passing marks posted by TCU's greats Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien. Judy threw for 1,327 yards and gained 1,512 in total offense last year.

"JUDY RUNS THAT TRIPLE OPTION," says assistant Jerry Boudreaux, "like he was twins." We can expect an upgrading of coaches' quotes, too at TCU.

Judy has outstanding targets in flanker Larry Speake, split end John Hetherly and tight end Lane Bowen. Linebacker Guy Morniss and defensive

The Arkansas State Indians, considered by most pollsters as the No. 1 college division team in the nation last year, had only one key loss from the Southland Conference championship club—head coach Bennie Ellender.

Replacement Bill Davidson takes over with a 19-game winning streak to defend, but with 19 of the top 22 lettermen to do the job.

Tailback Calvin Harrell and passing quarterback James Hamilton spark the offensive backfield. Two all-America choices, guard Bill Phillips and defensive back Dennis Meyer, are also back.

Abilene Christian, without all-America quarterback Jim Lindsey, will still have firepower in tailback Don Harr and wide receiver Ron Vinson.

Another crushing ground attack could be at Trinity where Warren Woodson comes back. He is assisted by Greg Oliver, quarterback Mike Curry and all-conference linemen Bruce Jackson and Bill Keresztury.

If injury-prone quarterback Tommy Tomlin can survive, Lamar Tech may be on the comeback trail. John Symank succeeds Burley Bearden at Texas-Arlington and his problem is to bring the Rebels back from an 0-10 season.

Stop the Alcorn Braves is the watchword in the Southwestern Conference. Graduation may have done what the league could not do, as Alcorn lost 13 seniors, including quarterback Clarence Tolliver.

At Grambling, 21 players are gone. But a healthy Matt Reed at quarterback and fullback Eldrie Turner give the offense a start. The G-Men, who led the college division in total offense in 1970, again feature the wing-T.

Jackson State returns Sylvester Collins, who led the conference in total offense and passing, and wide receiver Jerome Barkum. Texas Southern will have Larry Foster, who shared duties with David Mays for two years, at QB.

Prairie View lost few quality players, and good recruiting should pay off. Southern U. must bounce back from a .500 season, but more offense is needed. Mississippi Valley, winless last year, can only go up.

Falcons Hesitate Conceding Rockies To Be "Devils' Playground"

By JIM GRAHAM

Sports Columnist, The Denver Post

Director, Football Writers' Association of America

The Rockies will be the "Devils Playground" again this fall for those high-scoring, mercury-footed Sun Devils of Arizona State.

The Sun Devils swept through the Western Athletic Conference like a prairie fire in 1970, climaxing an 11-0 season with a decisive 48-26 triumph over North Carolina in the Peach Bowl.

Ever seeking fresh new worlds to conquer, Arizona State has added three rugged non-conference foes—Houston, Oregon State and Air Force—this season, and with a little luck, may keep the record spotless again.

The roadblocks to the Devils' ambitions for a third straight WAC championship appear to be surprisingly unproved New Mexico and unpredictable Utah, which must develop rapidly to be a contender.

AMONG THE INDEPENDENTS, Air Force takes aim on a fourth straight winning season, but the graduation-riddled Falcons can hardly expect to match last year's excellent showing which saw them upset Rose Bowl champion Stanford and land in the Sugar Bowl against Tennessee.

Once again, main area interest will center around efforts of the other seven WAC elevens to knock the mighty Sun Devils from their perch.

But even Arizona State coach Frank Kush admits that may take some doing. Getting the Sun Devil coach to just admit his team might be a winner is a tough chore, but Kush concedes his team will be an outfit to contend with again in 1971.

Back from last year's club, which ranked No. 6 in the nation, are 22 lettermen, including two first-team all-WAC honorees, four junior college transfers with credentials, plus fine sophs.

KEY CONCERNS for Kush, who now ranks second nationally in winning percentage (.767) among active major-college coaches, will be replacing quarterback Joe Spagnola, who helped win 25 of 28 games he started for ASU.

Also waiting to be filled are two guard holes created by departed Ken Coyle and Gary Venturo and a pair of linebacking slots left vacant by Mike Mess and Prentice Williams.

Two-year letterman Grady Hurst appears to have an edge over sophomores Dan White and Ralph Nickerson at quarterback while Mike Tomco, who won all-WAC laurels at both tackle and center, has shifted to guard.

Strengths include returning halfback Monroe Eley, fullback Brent McClanahan and wingback Steve Holden on a not big but quick offensive unit.

Defensively, tackle Richard Gray, end Junior Ah You and backs Windlan Hall, Mike Clupper, Prentice McCray and Ron Lumpkin return.

The schedule, opening with Houston and closing with traditional rival Arizona, with tough Oregon State to be met at Corvallis, is full of pitfalls, but the Sun Devils have the speed to surmount it.

DEPTH WILL MAKE NEW MEXICO, a team which posted an eye-opening 7-3 season and earned coach Rudy Feldman recognition throughout the area, a solid contender for the WAC title should Arizona State stumble.

The Lobos, whose 33-21 loss to the Sun Devils was the only mark on a 5-1 conference slate, have 37 returning lettermen plus enough help from the freshmen and junior college ranks to fill in for the 13 departed.

New Mexico lost fullback Sam Searber, whose 961 yards led the team and 96.1 per game average topped all WAC ball carriers. But the Lobo rushing game, second in the nation last year, will again be potent with two-time most valuable player Rocky Long back at quarterback along with Fred RACE IS ON Straining every muscle in this foot race, Wyoming quarterback Scott Freeman (19) tries to outleg Utah lineman Pete Michincok (78). Freeman had a good day, but Redskins outnumbered him, beating Couboys, 20-16, on a late blocked punt.

DON'T RUSH ME, could be what Portland State quarterback Tim Von Dulm (12) is saying as he manages to get pass away under pressure by Idaho State's Joe Molale (77). Game, won by Idaho State, 37-6, was played in new 12,000-seat Pocatello Municipal Stadium.

Henry and Nate McCall, who gained 829 and 716 yards respectively.

The Lobos will have all four interior line starters returning from an offensive line which protected New Mexico quarterbacks so well, they were thrown for losses only five times all season.

Tackle John Urban (244), guard Brad Bramer (235) and center Steve Swanson (202) are the top returnees. All WAC linebacker Houston Ross, who had 119 unassisted tackles and five interceptions last fall, is a tower of strength on defense along with Herman Fredenberg and Cliff Archer.

TWO SPOTS HAVE BEEN VACATED in the defensive secondary where Feldman looks to transfers for replacements, but junior Don Dungan and senior Bob Gaines return. Kicking specialist Joe Hartshorne, who hit on 37 of 38 PATs and tied a national collegiate record with 11 consecutive field goals over two seasons, also will be on hand again.

Utah coach Bill Meek must replace 15 lettermen from last year's 6-4 Red-skin squad. But while the loss was not large in quantity, it was decidedly so in quality and experience. Thirteen were starters at various times, nine on the offensive line. Offensive tackles Larry Wanda and Bruce Cosin are the only returnees with experience in the vital department up front.

Quarterback Dana Clyde is gone, but Gordon (Scooter) Longmire, who was the team's top signal caller most of last season, returns along with halfbacks Fred Graves and Gene Belczyk and fullback Jay Hardman.

GAPING HOLES WERE CREATED in the secondary with the departure of cornerbacks Norm Thompson and Dave Walker, and the loss of three-year linebacker Randy Hansen and defensive tackle Gerald Dockery will hurt.

Arizona also has designs on the WAC first division, but coach Bob Weber is cautious about the Wildcats after 3-7 and 4-6 seasons.

The 'Cats have 32 lettermen out of 47 back from a squad that scared the daylight out of the then undefeated Air Force team before succumbing to the Falcons, 23-20, on a field goal after time had expired.

Strength will be on defense where senior middle linebacker Mark Arneson, 215, is all-America material. Other defensive standouts include tackle

LEAVE THE BALL HERE—Montana State defensive end Lynn Schenk (87) doesn't mind if Idaho's Steve Ball (14) does some running, just so he leaves the ball behind. Ball held onto the ball, however, and Idaho cashed in on a 37-24 Big Sky Conference win.

Jim Johnson, safety Justin Lanne and cornerback Ray (Torpedo) Clark. Newcomer Jackie White, a defensive back, will be the team's fastest man.

Weber is "reconstructing" the Wildcats on offense and installing the veer-option this fall. Junior Bill Demory and senior Brian Linstrom will battle it out at quarterback. Joe Petroschus and Caesar Pittman are back at the halfback positions and Bob McCall returns at fullback.

The Wildcats also boast another all America candidate in flanker Charlie (The Pearl) McKee, a 190-pound speedster who caught 26 passes for 496 yards and nine touchdowns last year. He averaged a touchdown for every three catches and either a first down or six-pointer on 23 of his grabs.

COACH BOBBY DOBBS at the University of Texas at El Paso figures his 1971 Miner team will be better. His only worry is whether the improvement will show up in the won-lost column.

UTEP chalked up records of 6-4 overall and 4-3 in conference play last season, but draws a tough schedule plus an early WAC start in '71.

Quarterback Bill Craig, who completed 138 passes in 309 attempts for 2,123 yards and 10 touchdowns, returns along with top receiver Ed Pushes, who had 37 catches for 1,000 yards and three scores.

Also back are the Miners' top six ball toters, men who rushed for 1,812 yards a year ago, including Phil Hatch, who accounted for 785 of them.

Senior tackle Bob Tackett at 6-4 and 240, heads up the offensive line which Dobbs terms "probably the best we've had in my six years here."

The main problem is defense, where the Miners surrendered 23.6 points per game a year ago. But six of 11 defensive starters return including 243-pound guard Don Croft, linebacker Tony Perea and back Eric Washington.

EARLY GAMES WITH ARIZONA, Arizona State and Utah all before mid-October, will largely determine the Miners' conference fate.

Up at Fort Collins, coach Jerry Wampfler starts his second season at the Colorado State helm trying to plug the leak in the Rams' dike. Linebackers are the biggest need in the porous CSU defense with the secondary just a shade behind. But Paul Duda (215), an all-conference candidate and tackle Bill Johanningmeier (240) are in the WAC's top echelon.

The offensive backfield will be the squad's strong point with Lawrence (The Clutch) McCutcheon, first CSU back ever to top the 1,000-yard mark in rushing, joining Jake Green, Les Olson and Larry Tarver.

McCutcheon gained 207 yards in 39 carries against Brigham Young last season. The all-WAC performer picked up 100 or more yards rushing and receiving in every game but one in 1970, a mud bath with Wyoming.

QUARTERBACK WAYNE SMITH has graduated, leaving redshirt Scott Simmons to duel it out with squadsmen Jim Erickson and transfer Mike Ottombrino, along with Jim Feltus, up from the freshman team.

Smith's absence (he finished 17th nationally in total offense, 20th in passing), will be sorely felt, along with offensive line depletions.

Recovery will be one step nearer for Wyoming as the Cowboys debut under new head coach Fritz Shurmur, longtime aide to retired Lloyd Eaton.

Of the 45 lettermen who suffered through a 1-9 season, 35 return and 17 were starters, nine on the offensive unit and eight on defense.

Tailback Frosty Franklin paces the ground attack, Scott Freeman the quarterbacking corps and tight end Ken Hustad the pass catchers.

Junior end Dave Wentworth, second in defensive totals last year, is back to anchor that line, while safety Ed Schmidt, who paced the secondary in defensive points, returns to solidify the backfield.

A major problem will be replacing NCAA record holder Bob Jacobs in the placekicking department. And the Cowboys will be several years recovering from the "Black 14" incident of 1969. Fortunately, about the only way they have to go is up in the WAC.

BRIGHAM YOUNG IS CONSIGNED TO THE CELLAR in this pre-season forecast as the Cougars need lots more talent and depth to compete.

Coach Tom Hudspeth's youngsters had trouble moving the ball on offense last season and late in the year six sophomores were on the starting unit. Unless help is obtained through transfers, the same bunch will have to shoulder the load again this fall.

Brian Gunderson will be back at quarterback throwing to his favorite targets, split end Golden Richards and tailback Dave Coon. Pete Van Valkenberg returns as the top Cougar rusher.

Defensively, Dan Hansen, who led the WAC in interceptions as a free safety, Jeff Lyman, an outstanding linebacker and defensive end Joe Liljenquist are quality performers. But the Cougars don't have enough of them in this department or any other.

Air Force, under wily Ben Martin is riding the crest of three straight winning seasons, but no one expects a repeat of last year's 9-2 showing.

THE FALCONS RETURN 27 LETTERMEN, enhancing prospects of another winning campaign, but graduation riddled the ranks and the schedule includes jawbreakers like Missouri, Penn State, Oregon, Arizona State and Colorado.

Gone are all-America Ernie Jennings, he of the 17 touchdowns and 1,289 yards, not to mention the double and sometimes triple teaming, plus quarterback Bob Parker, runnerup to national passing leader Sonny Sixkiller of Washington. Add to the departures those of defensive stalwarts Phil Bauman at linebacker and defensive back Cyd Maattala.

But returning are the country's scoring leader, Brian Bream, fullback Kevin Brennan, tight end Paul Bassa and a sophomore all-America candidate, Orderia Mitchell, plus linebacker Craig Barry.

Joel Carlson is expected to replace Parker, but the Falcons will lack sophistication and explosiveness on offense and be vulnerable at the offensive tackle spots. On defense Gene Ogilvie and Willie Mayfield, stand out at tackle and linebacker, but the secondary must be rebuilt.

UTAH STATE COULD HAVE A GOOD YEAR, but the schedule lists such giants as No. 1 Nebraska and strong San Diego State as well as Kansas State.

Top performers for coach Chuck Mills should be quarterback Tony Adams, who engineered last year's 35-6 upset of Kentucky, split end Bob Wicks, possibly the top receiver in the region, and solid lineman Dave Cox.

The Aggies made big waves in rolling over Kentucky, Memphis State and Wyoming last year while posting a 5-5 season, but three of the losses came in games where Utah State was favored.

FREE AND CLEAR—Bursting through a sea of humanity at the line of scrimmage, Arizona State fullback Bobby Thomas eludes outstretched grasp of Utah's Dave Walker to score from six yards out in the Sun Devils' 37-14 WAC victory over the Redskins.

Montana has won the last two Big Sky crowns and coach Jack Swarthout's Grizzlies should make it three in a row in 1971. Most capable of challenging are veteran Idaho, always-strong Weber State and Boise State.

Montana's biggest plus is quarterback Gary Berding, who deftly runs the Grizzlies' devastating wishbone-T offense. The Grizzlies have excellent backfield depth and a potent blend of talented sophomores, redshirts and transfers.

Idaho, with 18 starters returning, has high hopes for Bruce Cole, a redshirt quarterback, and may also have the league's top runner in Fred Rile.

If coach Sark Arslanian can cure his backfield woes, Weber State will again be in the thick of things. Dale Mager returns at quarterback, but the Wildcats need replacements at fullback, tailback and wide receiver.

Boise State could be a surprise if either Pat Ebright or Ron Autele can get the job done at quarterback. Idaho State should be strong defensively, but will miss quarterback Jerry Dunne.

Montana State's chances for a winning year hinge on a fine sophomore crop. Northern Arizona's new coach, Ed Peasley, faces a rebuilding task.

Defending Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference champion Pittsburg, Kan. State College rates as the pre-season favorite to capture the 1971 title, but the Gorillas will get plenty of pressure in what promises to be a tight race.

Northern Colorado league champion in 1969 and Plains Division co-champs last season will press KSC hard as will improved Nebraska at Omaha.

Emporia State and Southern Colorado will also be much stronger in 1971 and Fort Hays State should be more experienced.

In the Mountain Division, Western New Mexico will have its bid to repeat challenged, particularly by division co-champion Southern Utah, while Adams State should make a strong bid to regain the crown.

Pac-8 No Longer Feels The Big 10 Seven Are Hopeful Rose Bowl Hosts

By JOE HENDRICKSON

Sports Editor, The Pasadena Star-News

Director, Football Writers' Association of America

Rose Bowl winner Stanford has dreams of duplicating Southern California's feat of representing the Pacific Eight Conference in the Pasadena New Year's day gridiron classic four straight years.

"We've just begun," said coach John Ralston after Stanford's spectacular 27-17 conquest of mighty Ohio State. Ralston and his Indians enjoyed their Rose Bowl success—and want more of the same.

However, the defending Pac Eight football champions, minus 21 outstanding lettermen, including several offensive stars, are confronted with the perils that exist when a conference boasts seven other teams that consider themselves stronger in 1971.

THIS COULD BE THE MOST WIDE-OPEN, unpredictable race the conference has experienced since it learned how to beat the Big 10.

Southern Cal, although rebuilding, could stage a big comeback.

UCLA has proven talent in every position but quarterback. The Bruins also have a new offensive minded coach, Pepper Rodgers, who is anxious to spring his scoring creations on the seven league coaches.

The two Oregon schools, University of Oregon and Oregon State—are loaded with veteran players. At Oregon, championship hopes are brighter than they've been in many years.

Joe Hendrickson, sports editor of the Pasadena Star-News, has just finished a 400-page book on the history of the Rose Bowl, titled "The Tournament of Roses Story," which is now being printed.

Hendrickson's 36 years in sportswriting included stints with three Minneapolis newspapers and a year as sports editor of Esquire Magazine.

He packed his bags and headed west in 1962, landing in Pasadena. His sports sections have won state awards the past two years.

The University of Minnesota alumnus is a past president of the Football Writers' Association of Southern California.

At Washington, folks are talking about the "Sequel to Sonny Sixkiller."

California has its choicest crop of junior college transfers, specialists corraled by Ray Willsey to supplement veterans.

ONLY WASHINGTON STATE is considered to be outmanpowered in this conference which may present more nationally potent teams than any collegiate league in the land.

Stanford's departed lettermen included Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plun-

TWO TOO LATE Navy's leaders Chuck Voth (69) and Mark Schickner stretch vainly in effort to catch up with flying feet of Washington halfback Darril Downey, who's going around the Midshipmen's end with goal line in sight. Huskies won, 56-7.

kett. Also missing will be the skills of pass catchers Bob Moore, Randy Vataha, Jack Lasater and Demica Washington, the blocking of offensive linemen like center John Sande, who helped clear out Ohio State's defense and defensive studs like tackle Dave Tipton, linebacker Ron Kadziel and backs Jack Schultz and Jim Kauffman.

"We will win with our defense," say Palo Alto informants as they await the title defense. "We will have the best defense in the West."

Middle linebacker Jeff Siemon is the leader of the defensive unit consisting of seven starters from the 1970 team. Up front there are three key men back—Pete Lazetich, Larry Butler and Greg Sampson. They absorbed the pounding of Ohio State's great offense and dominated in the late stages of the game. Veteran Mike Simone again will flank Siemon and Charles McCloud and Benny Barnes are returning to the secondary.

THE FORESIGHT OF RALSTON, who red-shirted capable quarterback Don Bunce last year so this skilled passer-runner would be available to carry on this year, could pay off handsomely. Bunce is a rollout quarterback who could bring some new twists to the Indian attack. Jesse Freitas, Mike Boryla and freshman Mike Gilyard also are in the QB race.

For runners, Ralston has veterans Jackie Brown, Hillary Shockley, Reggie Sanderson and Jim Kehl plus newcomers John Winesberry and Jim Ferguson. Winesberry led the frosh team in running and caught 15 passes.

Clearing their paths will be tackles Steve Jubb and Bill Meyers.

Can Stanford present more pass grabbing acrobatics such as that provided by Vataha, Moore and Company?

Eric Cross is a flanker with a bomb. A freshman, Rufus Shaw, averaged 23.6 yards a grab with the Pappoose. Miles Moore is favored to become the regular split end and Bill Scott the tight end. Because Bunce as a runner is likely to lug the pigskin more than he throws it, Stanford is not expected to put the ball in the air like it did during the Plunkett era.

THIS STANFORD TEAM, that still has 34 lettermen, figures to pound out a touchdown and then defy the opposition to get it back. This may not be as exciting an Indian club, but it could be more consistent.

USC was considered the team to beat in 1970 until John McKay suffered the worst season in his Pac Eight career (6-4-1). McKay thinks he has a strong offense in the cooker, but believes his defense could make mistakes because it will be new and young, although talented.

His rebuilding job on defense will be a big one, although Willie Hali and John Grant are still up front and linebackers John Papadakis and Kent Carter and cornerback Bruce Dyer form a veteran base.

Jimmy Jones, holder of every Trojan passing record, will lead the attack on offense. At his disposal will be speedy and talented fullback Sam Cunningham and running backs Lou Harris and Rod McNeill. Up front, John Vella has been switched back to offense after a year on the defensive unit.

McKAY, WHO WILL SUCCEED JESS HILL as USC athletic director in 1972, finds himself in the position he always wanted—that of the underdog. It will be interesting to see how he gets along with the pressure on somebody else. Southern Cal never should be counted out.

Certainly UCLA, which defeated the Trojans last year, will be a strong contender for the Pac Eight title.

Tommy Prothro left Rodgers all the tools for a winner—with possibly one exception. UCLA cannot say it has a quarterback of known quality. Dennis Dummit's bullet passes to good receivers are gone.

RIGHT ON!—Oregon State's big (6-3, 225 pounds) fullback, Dave Schilling waits not for friend or foe, blocking teammate Ralph Snow (33) included, as he bulldozes into the University of Oregon line. Beavers trampled Webfoots for state honors, 24-9.

"The problem with our quarterback situation is that we have too many candidates. I'd rather have one real good one," says Rodgers who developed Bobby Douglass at Kansas before returning to UCLA where he once served as the offensive coach for Prothro. During his coaching career, Rodgers has been a developer of star quarterbacks—Gary Beban at UCLA, Rich Mayo at Air Force and Steve Spurrier at Florida in addition to Douglass.

Lewis Thomas, a 6-5, 220-pound running type quarterback up from the freshman team, is a powerful ball carrier, but there is doubt he can pass up to Pac Eight requirements. It remains to be seen if Rodgers can teach the big strong kid the fundamentals of passing. Two junior college transfers—Mike Flores and Clay Gallagher—zoomed to the Nos. 1 and 2 spots in spring drills on passing superiority.

"THERE NEVER HAS BEEN a good football team that didn't have a good quarterback," says Rodgers, who'll try to pull another one from the hat.

The Bruins have everything else they need. Five of the seven offensive line starters, including center Dave Dalby, are present. Pass grabbers Bob Christiansen and Reggie Echols can catch anything in a crowd.

Veteran power runners Gary Campbell and Marv Kendicks should blend effectively with top freshman prospect James McAlister, who was an all-American in Pasadena prep circles. McAlister broke all UCLA long jumping records in track and field last spring and is expected to take the "long jump" into national prominence with the pigskin this autumn.

UCLA has seven defensive regulars among 37 lettermen, including two fine linebackers, Greg Snyder and Bob Pifferini. Sensational little kick return man, Ron Carver, also aims to break loose with long runs again.

IF THE BRUINS LACK A QUARTERBACK to dent Stanford's rugged defense, Jerry Frei's Oregon Ducks have strength at that position—and every position. Oregon could qualify as the team with a logical chance to make it to

HEY, HERE'S A PITCHOUT Used to seeing their quarterback Brian Sipe (9) put the ball in the air (fifth nationally in passing), San Diego State backs Lindsey James (44) and George Brown (33) don't seem to be expecting Sipe's pitchout on this play.

HIGH STEPPING Bobby Moore of Oregon, two-time Pacific Eight scoring champion, accelerates off the turf to avoid diving tackle by Washington State's Pete Lazzarini. The speedster, who'll seek third point crown this season, led Ducks to 28-13 win.

the Rose Bowl. Study these Oregon credentials:

The Webfoots, who upset UCLA, USC and Air Force last year, have 38 lettermen. Oregon has nine starters returning on offense and nine on defense. The serious loss is super pass receiver Bob Newland from the 1970 aerial circus that was second in the nation (230 completions from 441 passes). Frei has attempted to compensate for Newland's graduation by bringing in Larry Battle, first junior college player ever to score 200 points in one season (204 at Reedley). And let's not forget Bobby Moore's skills.

Dan Fouts, record breaking passer who smashed all Oregon marks as a sophomore, will direct the attack. He joins Washington's Sixkiller and USC's Jones as the "big three" among 1971 quarterbacks.

MIDDLE LINEBACKER TOM GRAHAM, the best man at that position Oregon has ever had, again will challenge all attacks and attempt to bring some stability to Oregon's defense, possibly the weakness at Eugene. Graham was in on 41 tackles in the game against Oregon State. Flanking Graham will be vets Steve Renne and Mike McConnell. Three fast secondary men will roam again—Bill Drake, Fred Manuel and Bob Green. Ends Ray Reeves and Steve Buettner and tackle Mike Williams provide front four experience.

It appears Oregon has the skill and know-how to win a championship if it can survive a killer schedule. Oregon opens at Nebraska, always a national power. If Utah can be considered a breather, the Webfoots can heal their wounds before invading Stanford, Texas and USC. If Oregon is alive after that ordeal, Rose Bowl tickets should be placed on sale.

The Great Pumpkin, alias Dee Andros, suggests that if any championship is going to be won in his state, the scene will be Corvallis.

Oregon State must replace some men on defense, but the offensive unit is returning virtually intact, led by fullback Dave Schilling. The quarterbacks are experienced—Steve Endicott, who underwent a bone graft on his wrist and Jim Kilmartin, who carried on effectively for Endicott when the latter was hurt early last year. Split end Jeff Kolberg, 39 catches last year, will be their favorite target again.

A BLOCK IN TIME springs Stanford's Eric Cross loose for a long punt return against Washington. That's Husky center Bruce Jarvis who is being erased at the crucial moment by Indians' Bennie Barnes. Rose Bowl-bound Stanford whipped UW, 29-22

Defensive standouts should be Jim Sherbert at end and safety Jim Lilly.

Oregon State opens at Georgia and then hosts Iowa, hardly the killer start that neighbor Oregon must undertake.

AT SEATTLE, JIM OWENS must replace his entire offensive line, the pride of a surprisingly strong team in 1970, in his bid to continue Washington University's football reincarnation. Husky men like guard Ernie Janet and center Bruce Jarvis are difficult to replace. Fullback Bo Cornell and some defensive contributors have also graduated.

Nevertheless, Owens believes he can continue the rise of Washington football to the heights it once knew under his teaching. It should not be forgotten that Owens was the first of the West Coast coaches to show the world how to beat the Big 10 on New Year's Day.

To lead Washington's bid again this year, Owens has Indian marksman Sixkiller, whose arrows were finely sharpened in a record breaking sophomore year. Sonny led the nation in passing in 1970 with 18.6 completions per game. He is a major reason why the Huskies rose from 1-9 to 6-4. Owens must be rich in quarterback material, for he insists that Greg Collins and Mark Blackman have some bullets in their guns, too.

Jim Krieg, the fleet receiver who caught a school record 54 passes in 1970 and shocked Stanford with a goal line to goal line kickoff return, will be the favorite target of these quarterbacks. Darrell Downey and John Brady also can pull down the pigskin—and they're good runners.

THE OFFENSIVE LINE will have height with Rich Hayes, Steve Schulte and Al Kelso ranging from 6-3 to 6-5.

Most of Washington's 1970 defensive material is answering Owens' whistle again, including four fine defensive ends Al Kravitz, Kurt Matter, Randy Coleman and Dave Morgan. Other standouts should be tackle Gordy Guinn, linebackers Rick Huget and Ron Sheperd and safety Bill Cahill. Kicker Steve Wiczowski hit 35 of 36 last year, and Washington also has some excellent punters—Dick Caluska, Gene Willis and Norm Goehring.

California is down to 19 lettermen, but five of them were offensive starters and seven were defensive regulars. They were in on the kill at Southern Cal, a rare California feat, and they beat Stanford on closing day. Willsey knows he must supplement this limited but most capable veteran talent with junior college men in key positions.

CALIFORNIA HAS THE BIG, STRONG HOMBRES up front that are needed to survive in Pac Eight warfare. They don't come bigger, tougher or more ringwise than the two Whites—Sherman (a tank at tackle weighing 250) and O. Z. (a 240-pound killer whale at guard).

For runners, the Golden Bears will feature vets Tim Todd and Isaac Curtis. The latter meteor, tabbed for 1970 stardom, now has the experience to attain super status. He could become the Gayle Sayers of the coast.

California also has the two Youngbloods—Ray at defensive halfback and Jaycee transfer Silvester at offensive halfback. The latter was the leading ground gainer in California's top junior college circuit while performing at Pasadena City College.

Two competent wide receivers are veterans Steve Sweeney and Geoff DeLapp who caught 43 and 27 passes, respectively, last autumn.

IT'S A DRAG, MAN, but San Jose State fullback Dale Knott isn't enjoying it, as he is dragged down from behind by California safety Dennis Acree at the end of a 17-yard run. Golden Bears finally downed the pesky Spartans in 35-28 scoring bee.

The Bears' quarterbacking will be inexperienced with Reed Chastang, a Jaycee transfer, and George Fraser, a sophomore, contending.

The offensive line has such stalwarts as Eric Swanson and Bob Purnell, but several big blockers are missing, and no longer is there a field goal threat like Randy Wersching.

JIM SWEENEY'S WASHINGTON STATE TEAM, which could score last year, but always paid the price for not stopping anybody, will try to improve by rebuilding its defense. By necessity, to gain a quick blood transfusion, Sweeney has imported junior college transfers like Harold Bradford, John Iglehart and Jim Robinson.

The Cougars don't have to apologize for their offense. Ty Paine at quarterback, runner Bernard Jackson and 240-pound Steve Busch up front can get the job done. Ken Lyday is a strong fullback, and Tommy Lomax and Brock Ansley have proved they can catch Paine's passes.

Sweeney, a perennial optimist who despises the word quit, is considered to be the man with an impossible task. Nevertheless, he continues to try to sell young prospects that a wheat stubble is as pretty as a palm tree once the ball has been kicked off.

WEST COAST FOOTBALL is gaining in caliber at the level just a notch below the Pac Eight. Last year Long Beach State, champion of the strong Pacific Coast Athletic Association, coached by Jim Stangeland, led Louisville in an exciting Pasadena Bowl game as the pact between the PCAA and the Missouri Valley Conference got underway.

Stangeland has seven offensive and eight defensive starters back for a season opener in the big time against the University of Mississippi. Quarterback Jim Fassel has come over from USC to aid Randy Drake at that key position. Top runner, with Leon Burns gone, is Jim Kirby, a speedster. Line stalwarts are John Kahler and Carl Moler.

San Diego State, the terror of the West until Long Beach State knocked off the Aztecs last fall, has 22 lettermen. Included is quarterback Brian Sipe who ranked fifth passing and seventh in total offense nationally last season. Tom Reynolds returns after sitting out a season with injuries. He set a national record for TD passes caught (18) in 1969.

PACIFIC RATES HIGH among coast grid powers outside the Pac Eight. Homer Smith has 13 starters back plus quarterback hope Carlos Brown.

San Jose State could be a sleeping giant with 50 returnees and some blue-chip recruits.

Steve Verry is the big back at Fresno State which boasts a strong running game. UC Santa Barbara and Los Angeles State figure to be vastly improved, but neither appears ready to challenge. Santa Barbara plays two biggies—Washington and Tennessee.

Defending co-champions Hayward State and Chico State again appear to be the teams to beat in the Far Western Conference for 1971.

At Hayward, all-coast offensive guard Monte Consani, tackle Curtis Thomas, center Scott Yeaman and return specialist Bert Castellanelli are back.

Chico returns all-league defensive tackles Al Davenport and Bob Bonner, quarterback Mike Salsedo and receiver Rex Smith among 28 lettermen.

UC Davis could step to the front if the champs falter. The Aggies lost only eight lettermen from a surprising 6-4 team.

Humboldt State hopes to be tougher this season as top transfers join 22 lettermen. Sacramento State rebuilds, San Francisco has 25 lettermen back, and Sonoma State officially joins the league.

Claremont-Mudd, under the coaching of youthful John Zinda, won its first SCIAC co-title in the school's history with an 8-1 season record. The Stags shared league honors with Redlands.

The 1971 race should be spilled between Claremont, Redlands and Whittier. Claremont-Mudd still has fullback Mike Gaston plus four other all-SCIAC performers ready for the campaign.

Redlands' Frank Serrano graduated most of his offensive punch, but the Bulldogs have a pair of key returnees, center Jack Cosby and safety Steve Verdieck. Whittier returns all-SCIAC quarterback Wayne Estabrook, a junior.

Pomona returns some excellent talent but has depth problems. Occidental continues to rebuild under the coaching of Bob Black.

LaVerne brings a strong defensive team into the conference for its first league season since 1938. Caltech no longer competes in the conference on a varsity level.

INTERESTED BYSITTER is Texas fullback Steve Worster (30), reduced to spectator's role on Cotton Bowl's very first play—a 63-yard scamper by Longhorn quarterback Eddie Phillips, who's eluding Notre Dame's Mike Crotty. But Irish won, 24-11.

National Grid Title Fumbled Twice, But Huskers Hold On In Orange Bowl

By JOHN MOONEY

Sports Editor, Salt Lake Tribune

Immediate Past President, Football Writers' Association of America

New Year's Day, 1971, may be remembered as the afternoon intercollegiate football revived the Alphonse and Gaston (I got it-You take it-I got it) act to decide the national football championship.

It started out with Texas and Ohio State battling for the championship and wound up late at night with Nebraska gaining most of the recognition as the nation's No. 1 team, somewhat by the process of elimination.

Texas, the defending national champion (except in Pennsylvania) with a 30-game winning streak, was the first to fall, as Notre Dame frustrated the Longhorn wishbone offense with a 24-11 upset in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas was losing when Ohio State took the turf in the Rose Bowl against Stanford. When dusk settled over Pasadena, Ohio State not only had lost its chance for the national championship, but also, the Buckeyes had been stunned, 27-17, by Jim Plunkett and the Indians.

THAT LEFT THE CHAMPIONSHIP UP FOR GRABS in the Orange Bowl, where unbeaten, but once-tied, Nebraska met defensive-minded Louisiana State.

The Cornhuskers pulled out a 17-12 verdict and gained the national championship recognition accorded by the Associated Press and the Football Writers' Association of America.

Texas had been voted No. 1 in the United Press International poll at the end of the regular season and Texas and Ohio State had been named co-champions by the National Football Foundation.

But at the conclusion of the Cotton and Rose Bowls, there were few who would argue the validity of the Texas or Ohio State claims—on that given afternoon.

"Big John" Mooney soon realized he had no chance to become a big name sports writer, with only 10 letters in his name. So he devoted his efforts to becoming one of the big men in the trade.

He's succeeded to the extent that, skinned and tanned, his hide would be wider than long. Medical science still boggles its mind over Mooney's theory—"I'm just too short for my weight, I should be nine feet tall."

He has managed to remain as sports editor of the Salt Lake Telegram and Salt Lake Tribune since he landed in Utah in 1939, after stopovers at the University of Iowa and the Chicago Tribune.

THE LONGHORNS fell victim to an innovation in the Notre Dame defense, to the offensive skill of quarterback Joe Theismann and to five lost Texas fumbles.

Notre Dame, beaten 21-17 by the Texas "wishbone" offense, unveiled its "wishbone" defense, which took away, to a great extent, the running of all-America Steve Worster and forced the Longhorns into passing or quarterback running situations.

Texas piled up more than 400 yards total offense and quarterback Eddie Phillips ran for 164 yards in 23 carries while completing nine of 17 passes for 199 yards.

But Theismann picked the Longhorn defense for a 24-11 halftime lead and the Irish defense, headed by tackles Mike Kadish and Greg Marx and linebackers Tim Kelly, Eric Patton and Jim Musurac, held off the Longhorns in the second half.

The defense held Worster to 42 yards for the game.

With Texas unable to sustain its offense down the stretch, Ohio State had only to beat hot and cold Stanford to clinch a national championship.

But between the Buckeyes and the crown stood Jim Plunkett, the Heisman Trophy winner, cast in the role of Horatius at the Bridge.

With 103,839 fans cheering him on, Plunkett led Stanford to a 10-0 lead before Ohio State got its offense untracked.

Buckeye power gave Ohio State a 14-10 halftime lead and the midwesterners could smell the national championship along with the roses.

Quarterback Rex Kern and power runners John Brockington and Leo Hayden led the Buckeye comeback, but the key play of the game was the Stanford defense holding Ohio State "fourth and inches" late in the game.

Plunkett then drove the Indians 80 yards, with the big play a 35-yard pass to Bob Moore, to the two-yard line. Jackie Brown scored the winning touchdown on the sweep.

Nebraska had no doubts about the importance of its Orange Bowl game with Louisiana State under the lights. Cornhusker fans flaunted "We're No. 1" banners at the kickoff.

But the Bayou Tigers grabbed a 12-10 lead on a Buddy Lee pass to Al Coffee for the touchdown.

Quarterback Jerry Tagge rallied the Huskers and passed to Jeff Kinney on the five. Three plays later, Tagge hit the line and stretched into the end zone for the winning score and the national championship.

In a game with no bearing on the national championship, but a thriller nonetheless, Oklahoma and Alabama battled to a 24-all tie in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston.

After Alabama had taken a 24-21 lead on a flashy pass from tailback Johnny Musso to quarterback Scott Hunter for 25 yards and a score, the Sooners tied it on Bruce Derry's 42-yard field goal with 59 seconds left.

THE SUGAR BOWL WAS ALL-TENNESSEE as the Vols broke open a tight game with a 34-13 victory over the passing Air Force Academy Falcons.

Bobby Majors returned a punt 57 yards to wrap up the victory and tailback Don McLeary scored twice in the last nine minutes to complete the rout of the overmatched Falcons.

The Volunteer defense intercepted four Air Force passes and held all-America Ernie Jennings to just two receptions for the game.

The Gator Bowl provided the offensive fireworks as 71,000 fans watched the shoot out between Pat Sullivan and Archie Manning.

Auburn, with Sullivan at the throttle, won 35 to 28 over Ole Miss.

The winning margin was a 55 yard punt return for a score by Larry Wil-lingham in the third quarter.

Sullivan, the nation's total offense leader, sparked Auburn to a 21-0 lead in the first 16 minutes, on two touchdown passes and a perfect touch-down run of 37 yards off the draw play.

But Manning, wearing a protective device to shield his broken left arm, sparked the Ole Miss comeback which fell just short of a tie.

AS AN OFFENSIVE SPECTACLE, the Gator Bowl stole the show, with Auburn picking up 557 yards and Mississippi 465 yards total offense.

Sullivan totaled 356 yards offensively on 27 of 42 passes completed for 351 yards and 35 yards rushing in 10 carries.

Manning, despite his injury gained 95 yards rushing in 10 attempts and completed 19 of 28 passes for 180 yards.

The Peach Bowl, played in rain and snow, offered Arizona State the chance to show its vaunted speed under the worst playing conditions.

The Sun Devils, small but quick, appeared to be making a run-away of the game after Joe Spagnola passed 67 yards to split end J. D. Hill for a 21-7 first quarter lead. Then the snow started to fall and all-American Don McCauley hit the Arizona crew at the same time and the Tar Heels scored four times in the second quarter.

Monroe Eley and Bob Thomas sloughed through the snow and mud for three second-half touchdowns to sew up the 48-26 victory for the Sun Devils in their first major bowl effort.

GEORGIA TECH, WITH A GREAT DEFENSE, slowed Texas Tech's running game and the Yellow Jackets won 17-9 in the Sun Bowl. The Tangerine Bowl saw Toledo win a 40-12 victory at the expense of William & Mary, and then lose its coach, Frank Lauterbur, to the University of Iowa.

As the collegians look forward to the 1971 season and its post-season bowls, they'll be facing the problem of coming up with encores.

In 1970, there was the great showing of Notre Dame and Texas in the battle for the disputed national championship, which Penn State coveted.

Then 1971 offered the championship battles which eliminated the two top contenders.

With the exception of the Oklahoma-Alabama tie, half the bowl game participants lost. But not one was a shutout, and the thrillers only whetted the appetites for the next set of post-season classics.

COLLEGE DIVISION BOWLS

Delaware, N.D. State Keep On Winning But Arkansas State Sustains Ranking

By GRAYLE HOWLETT

Promotions Director, National Collegiate Athletic Association

Arkansas State emphasized its claim to the No. 1 College Division ranking, Delaware captured its third straight Boardwalk Bowl, and North Dakota State notched its third consecutive Regional Championship, to highlight the 1971 College Division Football Championships.

Arkansas State, which had been rated the No. 1 college division team, downed Central Missouri, 38-21, in the Pecan Bowl in Arlington, Tex.

For the third time the Atlantic Coast Championship was played at Atlantic City's Convention Hall and for the third time Delaware won. The Blue Hens defeated Morgan State, 38-23.

NORTH DAKOTA STATE, Midwest champion in 1968, shifted to the West in 1969 and defeated Montana. This year, in a rematch, the Bison won their third consecutive regional championship, thumping Montana, 31-16, in the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Cal.

Tennessee State came from behind to top Southwestern Louisiana, 26-25, at the Grantland Rice Bowl in Baton Rouge, La. In College Division II action, Capital hosted Luther in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl, and beat the Norsemen, 34-21, for the West crown. The East College Division II Championship game was played in Atlantic City and Montclair State defeated Hampden-Sydney, 7-6, in the Knute Rockne Bowl.

In the Pecan Bowl, Arkansas State rode the passing arm of quarterback James Hamilton and the vicious ground attack of all America Calvin Harrell to 509 total yards and an impressive victory. Hamilton accounted for 244 of those yards in the air, passing for three touchdowns. Harrell rushed for 135 yards and scored once.

DELAWARE'S BLUE HENS went into the Boardwalk Bowl as the College Division's leading rushing team and they lived up to their reputation. Delaware set a new rushing record for College Division Bowl games as its infantry ran for 397 yards. Chuck Hall pounded out a game-leading 142 yards, Dick Kelley 104, Bill Armstrong 86 and Grady Kahoe 66.

Instant touchdowns were the rule as four scores measured at least 25 yards. Morgan State held an early lead, but the rest was all Delaware. Kelley's spectacular 84 yard TD romp sealed the verdict.

Led by quarterback Mike Benston, North Dakota State won its rematch with Montana. Benston rushed for 101 yards and three touchdowns, and passed for 110 more as the Bison extended their unbeaten streak to 29 games, the longest College Division string in the nation.

Tennessee State scored two touchdowns in the last six minutes and 12 seconds to register its comeback victory in the Grantland Rice Bowl. Southeastern Louisiana had an 11-point lead on a fumble recovery in the end zone. Then Joe Gilliam, the Tigers' quarterback, plowed over from the three, and Albert Davis got the winner from five yards out. Gilliam was outstanding, passing for 280 yards.

The College Division II East and West Championships entered their second year, and the Ohio Conference again indicated its strength. Last year, Wittenberg won the West title and this year, another Ohio Conference representative, Capital, was victorious. Luther, with a rushing defense which had given up only an average of 48.7 yards per game, could not stop the ground assault of the Crusaders. Capital netted 446 yards on the ground—235 of them by fullback Mike Goodman—more turf than all the other eight Luther opponents could gain all season.

Despite the great ground attack, Luther kept the game close by playing opportunistic football, grabbing four fumbles and two interceptions.

Montclair State and Hampden-Sydney played three scoreless periods before fullback Tony Brewster put Montclair on the board with a two-yard plunge. Bob Brewster's toe then provided the winning point after.

Four of the six games—the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento, the Grantland Rice Bowl in Baton Rouge, the Boardwalk Bowl and Knute Rockne Bowl at Atlantic City—return to the same sites in 1971.

The new Pioneer Bowl in Wichita Falls, Tex., replaces the Pecan Bowl in 1971. The Alonzo Stagg Bowl site will be determined at a later date.

The Camellia, Grantland Rice, Pioneer and Boardwalk Bowls on Dec 11 will again be telecast regionally over the ABC network.

MAJOR-COLLEGE STATISTICS

The Bold Ones—Sullivan, Sixkiller And Reaves—Set Their Sights High

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

Assistant Director, National Collegiate Sports Services

Approximately 115 college football teams, which play most of their games against each other, are classified as "major-college" or University Division teams. They represent the field of so-called "big time" college football as judged by class of competition rather than seasonal strength. The football teams of all other four-year, accredited NCAA-member colleges comprise the College Division field. An official list is issued annually each September.

Winning a major-college total-offense championship in this era of moonshots takes more than a rocket arm. You'll also need bomb-loving boldness and the legs for some rushing yardage to defrock the defending champion, Auburn senior Pat Sullivan.

Jim Van Valkenburg

For instance, Sullivan last season produced 47 plays of 20 yards or more (four more than 1970 Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett of Stanford), highlighted by TD passes of 85, 80, 73 and 62 yards. In each of its first three games, Auburn trailed until Sullivan fired the bomb.

UNLIKE MANY QUARTERBACKS, Sullivan calls more than 95 per cent of his team's plays. The big play is part of his philosophy. "It's a matter of confidence," says the handsome, dark-haired 6-footer. "If I didn't believe we could score on any play, I honestly think it would hurt the team."

Both top contenders for Sullivan's title feel the same way. They are Florida senior John Reaves and Washington junior Sonny Sixkiller, who exactly like Reaves in '69, led his team to an upset victory in his first varsity game with a deluge of passes, then went on to lead the nation in passing as a 19-year-old sophomore.

SULLIVAN, HOWEVER, ADDS AN EXTRA DIMENSION with his expert running off the option. His 5.2 yard rushing average in '70 has been topped by only one total-offense champion since '51 (rusher Dick Bass of Pacific in '58). Completing a lot of passes may not be enough for the total-offense title any more—Sullivan ranked ninth in passing, total-offense runnerup Joe Theismann of Notre Dame 14th—at least, not against Sullivan's run-pass mixture that set an all-time record average of 8.6 yards per play.

Sullivan has a lot going for him, like receiver Terry Beasley and a line that allowed him to be tackled trying to pass only three times.

SIXKILLER HAS HIS NAME going for him. He's a full-blooded Cherokee, the great grandson of a tribal chief. But Sonny says, "I hope writers will concentrate on my contributions now. Enough has been said about my name and ancestry. It's not true one of my ancestors killed six bison."

Reaves has Carlos Alvarez going for him, fully recovered from a knee injury, and that may be all Reaves needs to break Plunkett's career marks.

Reaves has cut his 40-yard time from 5.0 to 4.8 "so I can outrun those big linemen." And he's shed his playboy image by talking with youth groups, leading a walkathon and riding in a 57-mile bike race for charity.

Behind the Big Three among total-offense and passing returnees are Oregon junior Dan Fouts and three seniors—Brian Sipe of San Diego State, Chuck Ealey of 23-straight Toledo and Bill Craig of U. Texas El Paso.

Cornell's Ed Marinaro, '70 rushing champion and '69 runnerup to Heisman winner Steve Owens, boasts a career average of 157.4 yards per game (second among major collegians only to O.J. Simpson's record 164.4, set over two seasons.) Marinaro needs 1034 yards to break Owens' career record total (3867) and 1166 to become the first to rush for 4000 yards in three seasons.

MARINARO'S LONG-GAITED, CRAZY-LEGGED STYLE is unique and so is his habit of lifting weights every day all year—including just before games.

Air Force's Brian Bream and Dayton's Gary Kosins, who shared the '70 scoring crown—are among the top rushing returnees. Others are Princeton's Hank Bjorklund, Ohio's Bill Gary, William & Mary's Phil Mosser, Cincinnati's Steve Cowan, Yale's Dick Jauron and Alabama's Johnny Musso.

Musso earned Academic All-America (A-minus, business) with the same hard, persistent work he used to crash gates at Birmingham's Legion Field ("I got thrown out of one game four times—but I saw the game").

Other top contenders are Oklahoma's Joe Wylie, an Academic All-American (straight-A, liberal arts), Texas' Jim Bertelsen, and three gifted all-around players: Oregon's Bobby Moore, SMU's Gary Hammond and Louisiana State's Tommy Casanova, one of two returning consensus All-Americans.

THE OTHER IS NOTRE DAME'S TOM GATEWOOD, runnerup nationally in receiving and Academic All-America (A-minus, sociology). He leads such returning senior receivers as Villanova's Mike Siani, whose 1358 yards led the nation, Auburn's Beasley, and three-B-plus students—Toledo's Don Fair, Florida's Alvarez, the '69 runnerup, and Washington's Jim Krieg.

Beasley's 20.21 yards per catch just missed the record, and it's amazing that all but six of his 52 catches were either first downs or TDs. This frizzle-faced redhead mixes both speed (9.6) and endurance (he runs two or three miles every night after practice).

Completing the list of eight defending champions (most since 1944) are Utah's Mary Bateman in punting, Arkansas' Bill McClard in kick-scoring, and Arizona State's Steve Holden in punt returns. Other top returnees are Tennessee's Bobby Majors and Wisconsin's Novia Geyer in interceptions, Krieg and South Carolina's Dick Harris in kickoff returns, Utah State's Bob Wicks in punt returns and Southern Mississippi's Ray Guy in punting.

'70 Season Individual Leaders

The 1970 total-offense championship race went down to the end, and winner Pat Sullivan needed a big finish to hold off a tremendous effort by Notre Dame's Joe Theismann. Sullivan's 334 rushing passing yards helped Auburn overcome a 0-17 deficit and beat Alabama 33-28. A few hours later before an ABC-TV audience of 37 million, Theismann rolled up 512 yards—fourth highest ever by a major collegian—in trying to overcome big Southern Cal leads in a 38-28 mud battle that spoiled a perfect season for the Irish. Theismann fell short, but he took No. 2 away from Stanford's Jim Plunkett, whose 7887 yards obliterated the career record by 1319. On the same career list, SMU's Chuck Hixson finished second, Duke's Leo Hart fifth and Kansas State's Lynn Dickey ninth.

Sonny Sixkiller, a lean, rifle-armed sophomore, won the pass-completions title in leading Washington up from a 1-0 season of '69 to a 6-4 finish. He edged Air Force's Bob Parker, an A-minus engineering student.

Hixson, Plunkett, Dickey and Hart finished 1-2-3-5, respectively, in career pass completions and Hixson (.642) shattered the record by 151.

Ed Marinero closed the 1970 season with 203 yards rushing in Cornell's victory at Princeton, then went home to New Milford, N.J. and waited. Coach Jack Musick went to New York, bought a first edition of the New York Times and called Marinero after midnight with the news. He had won the championship despite Don McCauley's 279 yards—highest by any major collegian in '70—in North Carolina's victory over Duke.

"Ed was really thrilled," Musick said. Marinero was the East's first major-college rushing champion since '38 and the Ivy League's first ever. Marinero's 158.3 yards per game (edging McCauley's 156.4) was the third highest ever by a major collegian, exceeded only by the 174.0-yard average of San Francisco's Ollie Matson in 1951 and the 170.9 by O. J. Simpson of Southern California in 1968.

McCauley won two consolation prizes. His 1720 yards in 11 games broke the season mark for total rushing yardage (1709 by Simpson in '68) and McCauley beat Marinero for the all-purpose running title.

Air Force's Brian Bream, who shared the scoring title with Dayton's Gary Kosins, also shared a record with teammate Ernie Jennings. They combined for 39 touchdowns, two more than the previous season's high by team members—by Army's Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard in 1945.

Bill Burnett's career average of 11.3 points per game for Arkansas broke Steve Owens' record of 11.2. The versatile McCauley's 5029 yards in career all-purpose running ranked third in history on a three-year basis.

It's unusual for the same player to handle both punting and place-kicking because the leg action is different. But the nation's top two punters handled both jobs and both broke the record punting average for at least 50 punts. Champion Marv Bateman of Utah had a 45.7-yard average, runner-up Ray Guy, a Southern Mississippi sophomore, 45.3.

Arkansas' Bill McClard became the first kick-scoring champion from the Southwest Conference since 1941 with 80 points, one short of the record, and including a major-college record 60-yard field goal against SMU.

The nation's major-college field-goal total climbed to a record high (754, up 85 over '69) for the eighth straight year. At the same time, kicking accuracy again set all-time marks—both in field goals at 48.7 per cent good and in extra-point kicks at 88.3.

1970's runback title went to Purdue's Stan Brown (33.6 yards per kick-off return), Arizona State's Steve Holden (19.2 yards per punt return), and Ohio State's Mike Sensibaugh (1.0 interceptions per game).

It was Brown's second straight title. He did it by returning three for TDs in his last three games—93, 96 and 100 yards—equaling the record for an entire season. Holden, a sophomore who sprints 9.6 and long jumps 25 feet, broke TDs of 94 and 73 yards. South Carolina's Dick Harris smashed season marks for kickoff-return yards (880) and combined punt and kickoff-return yards (1199) and produced TD runs of 97, 96 and 96 yards.

On the career lists, all-time records were set by Texas' Happy Feller in kick-points (185), Wyoming's Bob Jacobs in field goals (37), Brigham Young's Chris Farasopoulos in all kick-return yardage (2454) and Iowa State's Jeff Allen in kickoff-return yards (1529).

Texas coach Darrell Royal says the Wishbone-T will be dead in a few years if defenses keep improving. Maybe so, but Longhorn opponents probably feel that day is getting farther away, because Texas' rushing average keeps going up. In the Wishbone's first year ('68) it was 331.5 yards per game. By '70, it was 374.5—highest since Oklahoma's record 391.0 in '56. And Texas won its first national scoring title since '41, outscoring 10-0-1 Nebraska. If you're wondering why every major doesn't use the Wishbone, it requires four good blocking backs who are also top runners.

Actually, 10-0-0 Texas was bucking a trend toward more rushing-passing balance. For instance, 10-0-0 Arizona State's total-offense champions averaged 298.2 rushing and 216.3 passing. Runnerup Notre Dame's balance was nearly perfect: 257.8 rushing and 252.7 passing.

Passing champion Auburn set a record 9.3 yards per pass attempt and its 7.1 yards per total-offense play was highest by a major since '53.

All of 1970's team defense champions had outstanding quickness. Louisiana State's rushing defense titlists, 9-2-0 and brainy (five starters had grade averages between A and B) "always had a horde of men at the point of attack," said Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian. 11-0-0 Toledo's total-defense and pass-defense winners were so quick their linemen and line-backers stole seven passes and scored two TDs on blocked punts. 9-0-0 Dartmouth's swarming defenders won the scoring-defense crown by allowing just 4.7 points per game—second lowest winning figure since '63.

Gunderson, Outrushing All But O. J., Leads Mr. A-Z In '71 Title Picture

By JERRY KLEIN

National Collegiate Sports Services

He played only eight-man football all through junior high and high school in tiny Two Harbors, Minnesota, but Ole Gunderson certainly caught on quickly to the 11-man game when he went downstate to St. Olaf.

In fact, the senior halfback developed such a deceptive running style that he now owns a rushing average that's been topped over a full career only by O. J. Simpson (164.4 to 158.7 yards per game).

"OLE STARTS QUICKLY in the first two steps," explains St. Olaf coach Tom Porter. "He's snaky running inside and runs from instinct on the outside. He takes that inside step to help his blockers' angle, then turns it on."

Gunderson, the most consistent of this season's top college-division returnees, was the national runnerup in scoring and rushing in 1969, and finished third and fourth, respectively, in the same two categories last season.

Jerry Klein

If last season's final rankings are an indication, Gunderson (140.6) may be in a tight race with Hobart's superstitious junior Don Aleksiewicz (140.0) and Penn Military's speedy senior Richie Weaver (139.8) in rushing, and with Rochester's big-play senior Rich Parrinello in scoring. He and Gunderson each averaged 11.6 points per game.

CALLED MR. A-Z BY TEAMMATES, Aleksiewicz used lucky charms—a bunch of chestnuts and a stick tree—and went without a haircut while trying—but failing—to end Hobart's eight-game losing streak.

Little Weaver, a 5-foot-9, 158-pound national champion in the 440-yard hurdles, demonstrated his explosiveness against Moravian. He sprinted for 363 yards, fifth best in collegiate history, and scored on touchdown runs of 79, 78, 68 and 56 yards.

Another efficiency expert is Parrinello. He lived up to his nickname of "Mr. Clutch" by scoring five touchdowns in his final game against Tufts. All season, he caught 20 passes—11 for touchdowns, the other nine for first downs—averaging an awesome 25.2 yards per catch.

The top passing and total offense returnees are Lock Haven's Mike Packer, 18.6 completions per game, Kalamazoo's Larry Pfaff, 235.6 rushing-passing yards per game, Louisiana Tech's left-handed Ken Lantrip. East Stroudsburg's Steve Mummaw and Amherst's Rich Murphy, Pfaff and Murphy are juniors, the others seniors.

THE PIGEON-TOED LANTRIP ("They tried special braces when I was real young but it didn't help") succeeded Terry Bradshaw last season, overcame a career-threatening knee injury and completed 17 passes a game.

Despite his size (5 feet 8, 142) Mummaw boasts a strong arm and he finds his open receivers downfield by looking through the holes in his team's spread formations.

In contrast, 6-foot-3 Murphy (16.9 completions) easily spots his receivers, particularly 6-foot-4, 230-pound Jean Fugett the nation's top pass reception returnee (76 catches per game) Fugett, who grew up with Notre Dame's Tom Gatewood is only 10 pounds heavier than when he first enrolled as a 16-year-old freshman.

Actually, the Amherst senior is outstanding in many ways. He owns a B average as a pre-law major, writes editorials as executive editor of the student newspaper and led last season's basketball team in scoring.

OTHER HIGH-RANKING RECEIVERS are seniors Bob Somerville of University of Missouri, Rolla, Bob Muckles and Jay Mann of Portland State, Joe Scarpelli of Upsala and junior Dale Schief of Franklin and Marshall.

The leading punting returnee, history major Phil Steffen (43.0-yard average) of Cal Poly, Pomona, carries on the family football tradition. His father, a former UCLA captain and Pacific-8 punting champion, taught him to kick. An uncle was also a captain, and his mother a Homecoming Queen, both at UCLA.

The other top returnees are senior Dana Verrill of Bowdoin in interceptions, and two defending champions—Illinois Benedictine (formerly St Procopius) senior Kevin Downs, 23.2 yards per punt return, and Baldwin-Wallace junior Mike Sculhu 35.1 yards per kickoff return.

Two pass-happy quarterbacks—Abilene Christian's Jim Lindsey and Portland State's Tim Von Dulin—overcame frequent arm troubles, and ended their careers in 1970 as the most prolific passing duo in college-division football history. Each finished first or second in both completions and total offense two straight years.

In 1970, Lindsey's winning average was 294.9 rushing-passing yards per game. Despite a broken collarbone for the second time in his career (he missed his final two games), 5-foot-11 Lindsey finished with all-time collegiate career records in passing yards (8521), total offense yards (8385) and completions (642).

Von Dulm ranked second in total offense at 276.5, but he won the passing title with 25.9 completions per game to Lindsey's 22.9. Von Dulm, who once had such a severe case of tendonitis in his arm that he almost quit football, played half the 1970 season with a sprained thumb.

Still 6-foot-3 Von Dulm set season records for most passes attempted (490) and completed (259). In his final game against Eastern Washington, with the temperature 22 degrees and 15 mile-per-hour winds, he completed a season single-game high 42 of 70 passes for 389 yards and five TDs.

Rushing champion Dave Kiaris was airborne, too. The Trinity (Conn.) halfback piloted his parents' five-passenger plane back from away games, and on the ground he rushed for 171.8 yards per game all season. Kiaris barely edged the 170.7 by Bridgewater (Va.)'s Marshall Flora, whose final-game effort of 291 yards fell just 10 short of finishing first.

However, Washington and Lee's Steve Mahaffey made sure he had enough—23 catches in his last two games and won the pass receiving championship with 8.2 catches per game. He overtook seven-week leader Bob Somerville of University of Missouri, Rolla, who caught only four passes his last two games, both played in wind and rain.

On the career list, Kenyon's Chris Myers set a record of 253 catches

'70 Season Team Leaders

For the first time in four years, there were four different team champions on offense. Tim Von Dalm led Portland State to its second straight passing title. The Vikings' passing average of 313.8 yards per game was the fourth highest in college-division history.

In rushing, 8-2-0 Delaware led every week of the season and won its second title in three years. The Blue Hens' ground-oriented machine averaged 385.9 rushing yards per game on 657 rushing plays compared with only 143 forward passes. Montana was a distant second in the rushing averages, at 334.4.

In total offense, 9-2-0 Grambling finished strongly and won the title with 457.7 rushing-passing yards per game. Just 3.7 yards per game separated the Tigers from national runnerup Abilene Christian (454.0) in the total yards rankings.

In scoring, 9-0-0 Wittenberg ranked first with 40.0 points per game. And the Tigers were stingy on defense, too, finishing second with an allowance of 4.0 points per game.

1971 University Division Schedules

Listed alphabetically in this section are the 1971 schedules and 1970 records of all teams classified "major-college" in 1970.

Schedules and records of College Division teams are listed in a separate section, beginning on page 131

Below each school name and location appears the name of its 1971 head coach, together with his complete coaching record for all seasons as the head coach at any four-year collegiate institution.

Home games are indicated by a diamond (♦) and night games by an asterisk (*). Neutral sites are indicated in brackets or by footnote symbols († ‡ #) on each schedule.

Opposite each opponent on a team's 1971 schedule is the all-time series record—the number of games won, lost and tied against that opponent in previous meetings between the two teams.

As one facet of the celebration of College Football's Centennial in 1969, two All-Time teams were chosen to recognize the top players of the game's first century. Each squad represented 50 years of the game's history.

Selections were by the Football Writers Association of America, with sponsorship by the Chevrolet Motor Division, which presented personal awards and a $1000 scholarship in his name to each selectee's alma mater.

These 22 players represent the finest in college football's history, their feats are legend and their stories are the very fiber of this unique American game.

The NCAA joins the Football Writers and Chevrolet in extending congratulations to these honored players.

THE ALL-AMERICA ROSTER

Three-Man Backfield, Extra Receiver Fracture Both Tradition And Records

Compiled by National Collegiate Sports Services

College football's 82d annual consensus All-America team sported something none of the first 81 had—a three-man backfield.

In this break with tradition, the selectors acknowledged a fact of the current two-platoon game. Most major-college teams now play one back as a wide receiver almost exclusively. So why not pick three receivers?

On the first 81 consensus All-America teams, just one back—Baylor's Larry Elkins in 1964—played primarily as a pass receiver. Two others gained more yards receiving than rushing (Army's Pete Dawkins in 1958 and Texas Tech's Donny Anderson in 1965), but then only slightly more.

1970's TRADITION-BREAKERS were a brassy, versatile trio: Tom Gatewood, an A-minus student majoring in sociology, was Notre Dame's "Swinging Gate." He played split end, tight end, slotback and flanker. Opponents had to look for him, and when they found him, often couldn't catch him.

The same was true of Air Force's Ernie Jennings (B-plus, majored in civil engineering), who played split end, tailback, slotback and flanker. Using his 9.6 speed, he caught 17 TD passes (one short of the all-time record), including bombs of 80, 67, 44, 44 and 37 yards, and rushed for two TDs.

Houston's Elmo Wright earned plenty of chances to do his famous end zone dance as he set major college career records in both TD catches (34) and yards per catch (21.9), averaged B as an electrical engineering major and was one of his team's best blockers.

Gatewood and Jennings were both Academic All-Americans. By coincidence, two Academic All-America ends also made the 1969 consensus team (which listed three ends only because of a tie in the voting).

BOOSTED BY ALL-TIME HIGHS of 3532 yards receiving and 33 TD catches, the 1970 consensus team totaled an awesome 9070 yards in rushing, passing and receiving combined—a record for a consensus six. The backfield trio certainly contributed its share.

Stanford's Jim Plunkett, for instance, achieved his goals of beating Southern Cal and going to the Rose Bowl, where he helped beat Ohio State 27-17 with superb passing and play calling. He won the Heisman Trophy, smashed all-time career records for passing and total offense, and set one record he probably never thought of: his 2715 yards passing in '70 were the most ever by a consensus All-America quarterback.

North Carolina's Don McCauley used power, great balance and acceleration in his low-to-the-ground running style to slash for 1720 yards, breaking O. J. Simpson's all-time record by 11.

STEVE WORSTER NEEDN'T APOLOGIZE for his 898 yards, but they didn't measure his true worth as the key man in Texas' fearsome Wishbone-T. He was a quick, bruising runner, top blocker and took a lot of punishment because his faking was so good he often was tackled without the ball.

One of Worcester's teammates, tackle Bobby Wuench, was the lightweight at 230 in an All-America offensive line that averaged 240.5 pounds—heaviest ever. It included Notre Dame's Larry DiNardo, an Academic All-America

(A-minus, government), and Tennessee's Chip Kell, one of three unanimous choices on the team. The other two were Ohio State defensive stars Jim Stillwagon, a middle guard, and Jack Tatum, a linebacker. Tatum, Stillwagon and Kell also were the only repeaters from 1969. The team combined the selections of the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Football Writers' Association, American Football Coaches Association and Central Press captains' team.

As proof that success brings success, just one of the 23 consensus All-Americans played for a losing team (Texas A&M defensive back Dave Elmendorf, an economics major with an A-minus average), 20 played for teams winning at least eight games and 17 played in bowl games.

Ohio State boasted five of the 49 players (from 30 colleges) receiving first-team votes. San Diego State and Long Beach State made the roster for the first time ever, Kansas State for the first time since 1934.

FOREWORD

1971 Outlook—Faster, Safer, Better

The century-old effort to maintain football as the top game on the collegiate scene goes on without a letup.

The game, 1971 style, promises to be faster, safer and better than at any time during the 102 seasons on record.

After the 1970 season the rulesmakers (the NCAA Football Rules Committee) gave the playing code its annual checkup. And they came up with changes that are certain to have an impact on the game. You can watch for these:

A scrimmage kick (usually a punt) that strikes the ground on or behind the goal line before being touched by a player of the receiving team no longer may be run back into the field of play. It's a dead ball and an automatic touchback now. The "false start" rule now is specifically applicable to linemen who have taken a stance.

Discourtesy toward an official has come in for attention. A player who slams the ball to the ground instead of handing it to the official does so at the cost of a major penalty.

In the interest of speeding up the game, three changes have been adopted. One reduces the number of time outs from four to three per half. Another specifies that, after a penalty, the clock remains stopped only until the ball is ready for play—not until it's snapped, as previously was the case. The other gives the referee the right at any time during the game to shorten the remainder of the game, with the consent of both teams.

With an eye on the safety of the players, a new rule prohibits the "spear block"—driving the helmet into any opponent's body. Until now, this prohibition has applied only to blocks against the ball carrier.

For years, football has recognized a legal clipping zone—four yards on either side of center and three yards on each side of the scrimmage zone. Now, any player stationed five or more yards outside the legal clipping zone, or in motion toward the ball at the snap, may not block an opponent below the waist. This is the so-called "crack-back" block. The new rule prevents a back or a receiver stationed nine yards or more from the ball from returning to the area to apply a "blind side" block on an opponent. The aim is to reduce knee and ankle injuries.

Penalties incurred behind the line of scrimmage will be a bit more costly now that they will be enforced from the line of scrimmage rather than from the spot of the foul.

This year, for the first time, a substitute coming into the game may request time out immediately, providing he is within 15 yards of the ball. And decorations, such as school colors, no longer are permissible on goalposts.

So here it is—the updated version of the Official Rules, in Easy-to-Read style.

Of course, if you want to be downright thorough in your study of the regulations of this complicated game, the NCAA can provide you with its 1971 Official Football Rules book ($1) and its Official Football Rules Interpretations supplement ($1). Just send the purchase price to the NCAA, 349 East Thomas Road, Phoenix, Ariz. 85012.

Then get yourself a whistle and maybe they'll let you referee.

THE EDITOR

DIAGRAM OF FIELD

Rule One

GAME, FIELD, PLAYERS AND EQUIPMENT

SECTION 1—This is Football.

Two teams of not more than eleven players each compete on a rectangular field with an inflated ball. A goal line at one end of the field is assigned to each team to defend. The object is to reach the opponents' goal, advancing the ball by running with it, passing it to a teammate or kicking it, and each team is given opportunities to do so. The rules provide points for scoring and, not surprisingly, the winner is the one with the larger score at the end of the game. There are no protests in college football.

SECTION 2—Supervision. There's a set of officials for each game, usually a Referee, Umpire, Linesman, Field Judge and Back Judge. Only each team's Field Captain may speak with the Officials.

SECTION 3—Field Dimensions. The playing field measures 300 feet between the goal lines and 160 feet in width. All boundary markers are outside the playing field, since measurements of the area are taken from the inside of the boundary markers. Thus, a player who steps on the sideline is out of bounds, and the ball has only to be in possession on or above the opponents' goal line to score.

A 10-yard area known as the end zone extends beyond each goal line. This area culminates with the end line, where the goal posts are located. The goal posts are 23 feet, 4 inches apart and are joined by a white crossbar 10 feet above the ground.

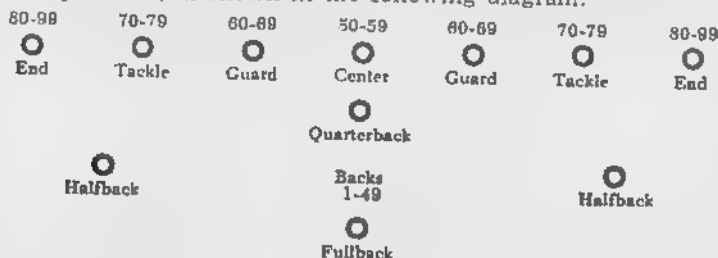

SECTION 4—Field Markings. Every white line on a football field serves a purpose and helps spectators, teams and officials. The stripes from sideline to sideline are the 5 yard markers, helpful in determining length of advance and the point to be gained. The short stripes at one-yard intervals are inbound lines. All plays must begin with the ball on or inside the inbound lines. The short line midway between the goalposts and three yards in from the goal line is the point from which the Try-for-Point is attempted.

SECTION 5—Yardage and Down Indicators. The chain used on the sideline to determine the point to be gained in a series of downs is 10 yards in length, with the chain affixed to two five-foot high poles. The down coming up next is shown atop a third pole.

SECTION 6—The Ball. The shape and dimensions of a football are unique. It is a "prolate spheroid," and if you don't know what a prolate spheroid is, it is exactly the shape of a football. It just misses being a foot long, measuring 11 to 11¼ inches. It's just short of a pound, weighing 14 to 15 ounces. And don't let anybody tell you a football is made of pigskin. It is not. It's made of pebble-grained leather (or, occasionally, of rubber).

SECTION 7—Jersey Colors and Numbering. Opposing players are required to wear jerseys of contrasting color and, inhospitably perhaps, it is the visiting team that must produce the contrasting color if a change is necessary. Players must wear numbers both front and back and groups of numbers are recommended by offensive positions, as shown in the following diagram:

On a scrimmage play, at least five offensive players with numbers 50 through 79 must line up on the line of scrimmage.

SECTION 8—Protective Equipment. Each player must wear a head guard, or helmet, and knee pads. Other protective equipment is urged, but not mandatory. If a player shows up without shoulder pads, for example, that's his business. Few are so inclined.

Rule Two

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1—Language Unique.

Suppose a stranger to football visualized a Free Ball as one obtained without cost, or a Fair Catch as less than a great catch. He might assume Clipping has to do with the lawn hedge, or Down a command to an overly friendly dog. Perish the thought!

Football, you see, has a language of its own, and generations of members of the Official Rules Committee have faced the challenge of defining its terminology. A study of the language of the game can be both enlightening and interesting.

SECTION 2—The Ball, Live, Dead, Free. In the course of a game, for example, the Ball itself may be referred to as a live ball, a dead ball, a free ball, a loose ball, an out-of-bounds ball, or maybe just a blankety-blank ball. In any case, it always is the game ball and once in play, it is "live" until it goes out of bounds, hits the ground on an incomplete pass or is declared dead by the Referee, as detailed in Rule 4. It is "live" also when it is fumbled across the goal line without being in possession of either team.

Obviously, when the ball is not "live" it is considered dead.

A Free Ball is a live ball that is not in possession of either team. The ball is "in possession" when it is controlled by a player or while a forward pass (or backward pass on the center snap) is in flight and while a punt or field goal is being attempted

SECTION 3—Other Official Terms. Those definitions merely start us on a long list. Some others:

BLOCKING—Legally hindering the progress of an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body

CLIPPING—Running or diving into the back of an opponent, or throwing the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent other than the ball carrier.

CRAWLING—An attempt to advance the ball by a player after any part of his person except a hand or foot has touched the ground.

DOWN—A single play by the team in possession of the ball. It starts with a snap from center or a free kick and ends when the ball next becomes dead.

DROP KICK—A technique now rarely employed, in which a player drops the ball and kicks it as it touches the ground or as it rises from the ground.

FAIR CATCH—The opportunity for a player of the receiving team to catch a kicked ball that has crossed the scrimmage line, without being tackled or blocked by an opponent, after signaling his intention by completely extending one arm above his head.

FORWARD PASS—Live ball thrown toward opponents' goal

FOUL AND VIOLATION—A foul is a Rules infraction subject to a penalty. A violation incurs no yardage penalty.

FREE KICK—A kick made with each team restricted from advancing beyond a fixed restraining line until the ball is kicked.

FUMBLE—Inadvertent loss of ball by player in possession.

HUDDLE—Two or more offensive players grouped together after the ball is ready for play, usually for receiving instructions from the quarterback concerning the ensuing play.

KICKOFF—A free kick with which each half is opened, and which is employed also following each Try-for-Point or Field Goal. A kickoff must be either a Placekick or a Dropkick.

LATERAL PASS—A live ball thrown toward or parallel with the passer's own goal line.

LINEMAN—A player who is on the line of scrimmage when the ball is snapped. Conversely, a Back is a player legally behind the line at the snap.

NEUTRAL ZONE—The space between the scrimmage lines of the offense and defense, approximating 11 inches (the length of the football).

PLACE KICK—The technique most often employed to kick off and on field goal and try for-point attempts. The ball, which may be held in position by any player of the kicking team, is kicked from a fixed position either on the ground or on a tee.

PUNT—A ball that is dropped from the hands of a player and kicked by him before it touches the ground

SCRIMMAGE—A play which begins with a snap from the center

SCRIMMAGE LINE—The yard line (marked or unmarked) that passes through point of the ball nearest a team's own goal line.

SHIFT—Change of positions simultaneously by two or more offensive players after play is ready to start and before the snap

SNAP—A quick, continuous motion by which the ball is handed or snapped back with the ball leaving the hands of the snapper on the motion. The snap normally is made by the Center

SPEARING—Illegal use of the head and helmet to ram an opponent after his momentum has stopped.

TACKLING—Grasping or encircling an opponent with hands or arms.

YARD LINE—Any line (marked or unmarked) in the field of play parallel to the end lines. "Own" yard line means between a team's own goal line and the 50-yard line (midfield).

SECTION 4—Unofficial Terms. Additional football terms in modern use which are not found in the Rules Book but have become common to the unofficial terminology of the game include:

ACTION PASS—Forward pass thrown from an offensive formation simulating a running play.

AUDIBLE—A vocal signal by the quarterback changing the play called in the huddle. Also called Check Off.

BALL CONTROL—An offensive technique of retaining possession of the ball by making a sustained series of first downs, rather than attempting long-gain plays.

BLITZ—Commitment by defensive backs and/or linebackers to rush the passer.

BOMB—A long pass attempt for a touchdown.

BUTTONHOOK A pass pattern in which the receiver goes downfield and U-turns back sharply to receive the ball.

DIVE-TACKLE PLAY—A quick handoff running play over tackle.

DRAW PLAY—Quarterback drops back as if to pass but instead hands ball to running back, after quarterback's teammates have assumed pass-blocking positions.

FLAG—Officials' penalty marker or field corner flag; also a pass pattern to the corner flag (opposite of post pass).

FRONT FOUR—Four-man defensive line—the tackles and ends

HANDOFF —Quarterback hands ball to a back for a running play

LINEBACKER—A defensive player operating immediately behind his line where he can either aid linemen in stopping a running play or cover an opponents' receiver if a pass develops.

LONG COUNT Quarterback calls numerous numbers to slow action as much as is legally possible. Also called Slow Count.

LOOK-IN PASS—Receiver runs straight pattern and looks for the ball immediately over his inside shoulder.

MAN-TO-MAN COVERAGE—Pass defense plan wherein defensive backs cover receivers wherever they go, rather than field areas.

MONSTER—A roving linebacker who may position himself on either side of his team's defensive formation.

ON-SIDE KICK—A kickoff that travels 10 yards or more is anybody's ball. The so-called "onside kick" is an effort by the kicking team to kick the ball barely beyond 10 yards and recover it before the receiving team can do so.

POCKET—Area of protection for the passer, formed by blockers. Passer drops straight back from scrimmage behind the blocking shield into what resembles a "cup" or pocket.

POST—A pass pattern in which receiver goes downfield to pre-determined depth then cuts at an angle toward the goalposts.

PREVENT DEFENSE—A strategem replacing linebackers with additional backfield pass defenders, sacrificing strength against short gainers in order to prevent a long pass completion. Most often employed by a team protecting a lead late in either half.

PULLING GUARD—Guard who pulls out behind scrimmage line for a trap block or to lead sweep blocking for ball carrier

REVERSE PLAY—A running play with backfield action suggesting one direction while ball carrier goes in opposite direction.

ROLL-OUT PASS—Quarterback runs laterally with blockers before throwing, instead of dropping straight back to pass.

SCREEN PASS—Pass to a receiver behind a wall of blockers, who have permitted defenders to penetrate.

SLOT BACK—Back stationed in slot between interior linemen and end. Must be one yard behind the line of scrimmage.

SPLIT END—A lineman who, like the flanker back, is set wide for pass-receiving purposes. Also called a Wide Receiver.

STRONG SIDE—Overbalance of offensive or defensive linemen to either side of the Center.

STUNTING—Defensive players changing positions as the ball is snapped, to confuse offensive strategy

SWEEP—End run with wave of blockers leading the ball carrier.

TIGHT END—Offensive end who lines up in close formation (as opposed to Split End's wide set) where he can either block for a ball carrier or be employed as a pass receiver

TRAP BLOCK—A ploy permitting a defender to penetrate quickly, only to be blocked from the side by pulling guard or tackle.

ZONE COVERAGE—Plan of pass defense wherein areas are covered rather than individual receivers. Opposite of Man-To-Man.

PERIODS, TIME FACTORS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

SECTION 1—Start of the Game. Each half must start with a kickoff, but it doesn't have to be a placekick. If some young man desires to begin a half with a dropkick he will be considered an innovator, but he will be entirely within his rights. The status of the dropkick has not been changed in years, although it has virtually disappeared from usage.

There's one preliminary to the kickoff. About three minutes before the scheduled start of a game, the Referee calls the field captains together and tosses a coin, first designating which shall call heads or tails. The winner of the toss has the option of kicking, receiving or choosing the goal his team will defend. A choice once announced may not be changed. The loser of the toss has his choice of the options at the start of the second half.

SECTION 2—Start of Second and Fourth Quarters. During the brief intermission between the first and second periods and between the third and fourth periods the teams change goals. The ball is relocated in the opposite half of the field at the spot corresponding exactly to where it was before the change of goals. Possession of the ball, the down and distance to be gained remain unchanged.

SECTION 3—Playing Time and Intermissions. The total actual playing time in a collegiate game is 60 minutes, divided into four periods of 15 minutes each and with one-minute intermissions between the first and second quarters and the third and fourth quarters (High Schools and Prep Schools play 12-minute quarters) The halftime intermission is 15 minutes, but it may be lengthened or shortened by mutual agreement. At any time during a game, the remaining playing time may be shortened by mutual agreement of the opposing Field Captains and the Referee.

SECTION 4—Extension of Periods. No period ends when the ball is in play, even though time expires during the play. If the time runs out during a play on which a touchdown is scored, the Try-for-Point is completed. The period also is extended to permit completion of a play free of penalty, if a defensive team fouls on a play during which time expires. No such extension of the period applies when the team in possession fouls or when both teams foul on the play.

SECTION 5—The Game Clock. This item can be more vital to the outcome of a football game than a timer is to a soft-boiled egg. It may be a stopwatch operated by the Field Judge or Back Judge, or it may be an electrically powered field clock operated by an assistant.

The clock first starts when a Kickoff is legally caught or touched. Thus, if a Kickoff goes out of bounds the clock is not started, since the ball was not legally touched or caught.

On scrimmage plays, the clock is started when the ball is snapped or on prior signal by the Referee.

The clock is stopped (a) when the Referee declares time out; (b) when a Touchdown, Field Goal, Safety or Touchback is made; (c) when a Penalty is called; (d) when a Forward Pass falls incomplete; (e) when a Fair Catch is made or when the ball is illegally touched; (f) when a live ball goes out of bounds, (g) when a first down is declared for either team; and (h) when a period ends.

The clock does not run during a Try-for-Point.

SECTION 6—Time Outs. Each team is permitted three free time outs in each half, except that a team may not request two of its time outs consecutively. Free time outs may not exceed one and one-half minutes.

During a free time out, one player at a time may go to the sidelines to confer with the coaches.

The Referee has the authority to call time out for a contingency such as the repair of damaged equipment which might become dangerous, or quieting the crowd when a team can not hear its signals. He also orders time out during measurement for a first down.

The clock is stopped for each time out.

After its third time out in each half, a team may be allowed a subsequent time out only for the replacement of an injured player and such an excess time out is no longer than the Referee deems necessary for the purpose.

SECTION 7—Delays. If a team is not ready for play at the scheduled time for the beginning of each half, it is penalized 15 yards. Failure to promptly remove an injured player is interpreted as delaying the game and is subject to a 5-yard penalty.

But the most common form of delay is action or inaction representing "stalling" tactics by a team attempting to consume time, usually near the end of either half of the game. A 5-yard penalty is invoked whenever the offensive team fails to put the ball in play within 25 seconds after it has been declared ready for play by the Referee. Also, when the Referee believes a team is trying to consume (or conserve) time by unfair tactics, he may order the clock started (or stopped).

SECTION 8—Substitutions. The controversial "free substitution" rule in college football is not quite literally that, because no more than two substitutes may enter the game except at specified times. However, present rules are so generous in this respect as to approximate "free" substitution.

The occasions on which any number of substitutes may enter the game include. (a) between periods, (b) after a score or try for-point; (c) when the ball changes hands after a series of downs or (d) when, following a kick, the kicking team is awarded a first down.

Substitutions may not be made while the ball is in play and a substitute who enters the game may not be withdrawn until one down has intervened, a foul occurs or the period ends.

Even more liberalized or restrictive substitution rules may be adopted in Prep School and High School games.

Rule Four

BALL IN PLAY, DEAD BALL, OUT OF BOUNDS

SECTION 1—"Alive" if in Play.

The proverbial cat with nine lives was a piker compared to the ball used in a football game. It may be "live" one minute and "dead" the next and then, without fanfare, it becomes live again, dead again time and time again in the course of a game. And if the sweet young thing with the pom-pom asks if a live ball might race away under its own power, you'll just have to set her straight. Football, remember, has its own language.

After a dead ball has been declared ready for play by the Referee, it becomes a live ball when it is snapped or free kicked. A ball loses its "life" and becomes "dead" in many ways, including when an official blows his whistle accidentally.

SECTION 2—When Ball is Declared Dead. Generally speaking, the ball is "blown dead" by an official, signifying the end of a play:

- a. When it goes out of bounds or touches the goal line of the ball carrier's opponents, or when a ball carrier is so held that his forward progress is stopped;
- b. When any part of the ball carrier's body, other than his hand or foot, touches the ground (except it remains alive when held for a placekick, even though the ball holder's knee is on the ground);
- c. When a touchdown, field goal, safety, touchback or try-for-point has been made, or when a fair catch has been made;
- d. When the defensive team gains possession of the ball on a try-for-point, or when the try fails to score;

- e. When the kicking team recovers a kick that has crossed the neutral zone;
- f. When a kick comes to rest on the ground and no player attempts to recover it;
- g. When a forward pass strikes the ground, or is caught simultaneously by opposing players;
- h. When a backward pass or fumble is recovered by an opponent after the ball has hit the ground;
- i. When a live ball touches anything inbounds other than a player, an official or the ground;
- j. When a backward pass or fumble is caught simultaneously by opposing players;

SECTION 3—The 25-Seconds Rule. The ball, once dead, may not be put back in play until the Referee declares it ready for play. It then must be put in play within 25 seconds.

SECTION 4—Out of Bounds. A play is out of bounds when a player—or the ball in his possession—touches a boundary line or anything on or beyond it except an official or another player. A free ball (except a scoring kick) or a forward pass is out of bounds when it touches the ground or anything else on or outside a boundary line.

The point where the ball crossed the sideline determines where it went out of bounds. If a player with the ball in his possession is tackled with part of his person out of bounds but the ball remains within the playing field, the ball is ruled out of bounds at the farthest point of its advance.

Rule Five

SERIES OF DOWNS, LINE TO GAIN

So universally accepted is the word "down" in football that it often is taken for granted and implied, rather than stated—as in "third and three." To followers this means third down and three yards to go.

SECTION 1—When Series is Awarded. A down always is one play in a set of four, known as a "series of downs," because when a team comes into possession of the ball (usually by receiving a kick, intercepting a pass or recovering a fumble), it is awarded four downs in which to gain the required ten yards or more to continue possession, and to be awarded another series of four downs.

This, of course, is the significance of the familiar "first and ten," which is simply football shorthand for first down and ten yards to go. The 10-yard distance to be gained is measured from the ball's most forward point and that target (officially termed but seldom called "the line to gain") is kept in view along the sideline by a yardage chain.

Associated with the chain is a down indicator. It is an ancient and revered device now primarily for the information of nearby officials and players, since scoreboards generally serve this purpose better for everyone else in the stadium.

SECTION 2—When Series is Renewed. A legal advance to or beyond the "line to gain" may be made in one down, or in any number through four downs. When the yardage requirement has been met, the team in possession is awarded a new series of four downs and the "line to gain" is advanced ten yards. This, universally but unofficially, is known as "making a first down," as distinguished from a first down inherited when the ball changes hands.

SECTION 3—When Series is Broken. A team that fails to gain the required ten yards in a full series of four downs must relinquish the ball to the opposing team at the point where the fourth down play ends. To assure the turnover of possession at the most advantageous possible point on the field, the strategem most often employed is a fourth-down kick.

SECTION 4—First and Goal. One of the most conspicuous omissions of the word "down" is in the situation usually called "first and goal." It means a team has made (or inherited) a brand new series of downs less than 10 yards from its opponents' goal line, hence first down and goal (instead of 10 yards) to go.

SECTION 5—Penalty Interruption of Series. The Official Rules cover in detail various tricky situations a Referee must unravel when a penalty intrudes on a series of downs. Unless you plan to don a striped shirt, all you will be interested in knowing are these basic facts:

- a. A penalty moving the ball to or beyond the "line to gain" earns a first down the same as a run or pass play.
- b. Most yardage penalties simply cancel the play during which foul occurred and that down is repeated from the new spot (unless a first down was earned by the penalty yardage).
- c. It's also a "do over" when both teams commit fouls during a single play (called offsetting fouls), except there is an option when the ball changes possession in such a situation (Rule 10, Section 2).
- d. However, if a penalty is declined by the team against which the foul was committed, it is the penalty that is canceled and the play and down count as if the foul had never occurred.

Rule Six

KICKS

EDITOR'S NOTE—From the sketchy history of the origin of football, we know only that the kick was the very foundation of the early-day game. Without it, the ball could not have been moved, since there were no provisions for carrying the ball.

Research by Herbert O. (Fritz) Crisler of the University of Michigan, permanent member of the Football Rules Committee, has brought to light the first running play of record. It was illegal, and more than fifty years passed before the American version of that run was introduced into football.

The incident took place in 1823 at Rugby School in England under "Association" football rules and William Webb Ellis, the original forgotten man of football, made the run. Near the close of the engagement, "he caught the ball and instead of kicking it back as required by the rules, ran through the astonished opposition across the goal line."

Today, on an ivy-covered wall at Rugby, a tablet marks his place in football history:

THIS STONE COMMEMORATES THE EXPLOIT OF WILLIAM WEBB ELLIS WHO WITH FINE DISREGARD FOR THE RULES OF FOOTBALL FIRST TOOK THE BALL IN HIS ARMS AND RAN WITH IT THUS ORIGINATING THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE OF THE RUGBY GAME . . . A.D. 1823.

Thus, apparently, were sown the seeds of our running game which now, with the pass, shares emphasis with the kick. But the booted ball, the subject matter of Rule 6, never has ceased to be a basic part of football.

SECTION 1—Free Kicks [Kickoffs]. The most familiar Free Kick—requiring both teams to remain behind their respective restraining lines until the ball is kicked—is the kickoff (see Definitions, Rule 2, Section 3). For the kicking team, the restraining line is its own 40-yard line (unless relocated by penalty) and the receiving team's restraining line is ten yards beyond (usually the 50-yard line).

Much rarer is the Free Kick after a safety is scored, when the restraining line for the kicking team is its 20-yard line, with the receiving team's restraining line at the 30-yard line.

The ball is placed on the kicking team's restraining line and all of its players except the kicker and the holder of the ball on a place-kick must stay behind the ball until it is kicked. This exception legalizes the "soccer-type" kickoff.

The receiving team not only must keep all its players behind its restraining line, but also must have at least five of them within five yards of that line. This might be termed the "anti-flying-wedge" rule, because it is what prevents the receiving team from forming a solid mass of blockers around its receiver

SECTION 2—Free Kick Recovery. No player of the kicking team may touch a free kick before it either reaches the opponents' restraining line (i.e., travels at least ten yards) or is touched by a player of the receiving team. Thus, when a trailing team attempts an "onside" kickoff (usually in a game's waning moments), the trick is to kick the ball a minimum distance over ten yards and try to recover it before the opposition does. If the ball is touched before it has traveled ten yards, the kicking team is "offside" and the opponents are awarded possession at that spot.

A player of the receiving team may run with a free kick (unless a fair catch was signalled), but a player of the kicking team cannot advance a recovered free kick.

If a ball rolls dead on a free kick, i.e., no one attempts to take possession, it belongs to the receiving team. But if a kickoff into the end zone is not downed by the receiving team, the kicking team scores a touchdown simply by recovering the ball. This error of omission by a receiving team turns up more often than you might think.

SECTION 3—Kickoff Out of Bounds. When a kickoff (or any free kick) goes out of bounds untouched, the receiving team may either (a) take possession where it went out of bounds or (b) require the kicking team to accept a 5-yard penalty and kick again (this time from its own 35-yard line, if kickoff was from the 40).

SECTION 4—Scrimmage Kicks [Punts, etc.]. Scrimmage kicks-- whether punts, placekicks or dropkicks—have no restraining line for either team except the line of scrimmage. Either a punt or a placekicked field goal attempt is the common fourth down strategy of an offensive team that has failed to make the necessary ten yards in three of its series of four downs.

If a scrimmage kick (except the try-for-point) fails to cross the scrimmage line, whether blocked by an opponent or for other reason, any player may recover and advance the ball. But once the ball has crossed the scrimmage line, no player of the kicking team may recover the ball before it touches an opponent. If the kicking team touches the ball first, possession is awarded to the receiving team at the spot, and the ball becomes dead.

A scrimmage kick that strikes the ground in the receiving team's end zone before being touched by a player of the receiving team is immediately dead and it's a touchback.

Otherwise, as with free kicks, the receiving team may advance any scrimmage kick it recovers or catches (unless a fair catch was signalled), but not so the kicking team. A scrimmage kick that goes out of bounds belongs to the receiving team at that point.

SECTION 5—Opportunity to Catch a Kick. A player of the receiving team who is in position to catch a kick may not be interfered with by the kicking team while the ball is in flight. This protection terminates, however, the moment he or a teammate touches the ball.

SECTION 6—Fair Catch. A fair catch signal—arm extended clearly over head—gives a player the right to make an unmolested attempt to catch the ball without fear of being blocked or tackled after the catch. As his part of the bargain, the kick receiver's fair-catch signal "promises" he will not attempt to run with the ball.

When a fair catch is made, the ball is dead at the spot of the catch and the receiver incurs a 5-yard penalty if he takes more than two steps after the catch. If a player of the kicking team tackles or blocks an opponent who has made a fair catch, he incurs a 15-yard penalty.

A player who signals for a fair catch is not obligated to attempt the catch, but if he does not, he must not block an opponent on the play (enforced by a 15-yard penalty).

Rule Seven

SNAPPING AND PASSING THE BALL

SECTION 1—The Scrimmage.

The action starts with the kick-off, but the tempo usually increases with the "scrimmage" that follows the kickoff. The scrimmage literally is the heart of the game—the means through which the power, the finesse and the deception of the game are set in motion and the defense thrown into gear. It starts with the teams facing each other across a narrow strip of No Man's Land about 11 inches wide. The snap of the ball sets in motion a play that may be a run, a pass or a kick

The scrimmage play must start between the hash marks (inbound lines)—within the center-third of the field's width. It need not end there, but if it does not, the Referee must move the ball back into the area between the hash marks before the next play begins.

The Center, officially known as the snapper, may not move the ball or change his stance after he has taken his position for the snap. Nor may any of his teammates make any movement feigning the start of play. Players on defense need not remain stationary before the snap of the ball, but they may not touch the ball, cross or encroach on the neutral zone or make contact with an opponent. A substitute who is entering the game must be within 15 yards of the ball before it is snapped.

SECTION 2—Scrimmage Formation. At the snap of the ball, at least seven members of the offensive team must be on the line of scrimmage. Five of these players must wear numbers from 50 through 79. This permits the officials to quickly identify players who are NOT eligible to receive a forward pass and who, accordingly, are prohibited from going downfield before a pass is thrown.

Those players on the offensive team who are not required to be on the line of scrimmage when the ball is snapped must be at least one yard behind it, with this exception; One player, usually the quarterback who first receives the ball from center, may be less than one yard from the line of scrimmage at the time of the snap. It is legal, however, for the center to snap the ball directly to another back. And it is permissible for one offensive player to be in motion immediately before the snap, but the "man in motion" must run laterally or toward his own goal, not toward his opponents.

SECTION 3—Shift Plays. If the snap is preceded by a huddle or a shift (simultaneous movement of two or more players), all offensive players must come to an absolute stop and remain stationary for one full second before the ball is snapped.

An offensive player who is behind the scrimmage line may hand the ball forward to a teammate who also is behind the line.

SECTION 4—Backward Pass and Fumble. A ball carrier may hand or pass the ball backward at any time and a backward pass or fumble may be caught or recovered by any player. If caught in flight by an inbounds player, the ball continues in play, but if recovered after the ball hits the ground, only the offensive team may advance it.

When a backward pass or fumble goes out of bounds or is caught or recovered simultaneously by opposing players, the ball becomes dead at that spot and belongs to the team last in possession.

SECTION 5—The Forward Pass. The offensive team may make one forward pass during each scrimmage down, but it must be thrown before the passer advances beyond the neutral zone. The defensive team may not throw a forward pass, nor may the offensive team intentionally ground a pass in an effort to avoid the risk of interception or to conserve time.

SECTION 6—Eligibility to Catch Pass. All defensive players are eligible to catch (intercept) a forward pass, but only six offensive players (including the passer) may do so. They are those wearing numbers other than 50 through 79, normally the two ends and four backs. However, when a defensive player touches a forward pass, all players become eligible Ineligible pass receivers (including numbers 50 through 79) may not advance beyond the neutral zone until the pass is thrown.

SECTION 7—Completed Pass. A forward pass is completed when the ball is caught by an eligible offensive player who is inbounds, and the ball continues in play. It also is completed when caught simultaneously by opposing players but, although the passing team is awarded the ball, it may not advance it

SECTION 8—Incompleted Pass. A forward pass is incomplete when it strikes the ground or goes out of bounds. It also is incomplete if a receiver jumps to catch the pass and comes down with a foot on or outside a boundary line (sideline or endline) before one of his feet or his body touches in bounds. On an incomplete pass, possession remains with the passing team at the previous scrimmage spot.

SECTION 9—Pass Interference. Contact by an opponent which interferes with an eligible receiver (defensive players included) beyond the neutral zone, is pass interference. However, players are not guilty of interference when making a simultaneous and bona fide effort to reach the ball.

Pass interference by a defensive player gives the offensive team the ball and a first down at the spot of the foul (on the 1-yard line, if foul is in end zone). Offensive interference costs a down and 15 yards, if foul occurs in the field of play. If it occurs in the defensive team's end zone, it may be ruled a touch-back, thus loss of possession by the passing team.

total by one or two points, while time is out. The attempt is a scrimmage play from the opponents' 3-yard line. A placekick or dropkick clearing the crossbar between the opponents' goal posts earns one extra point. Two points are added by a legally completed forward pass or a running play that advances to or beyond the opponents' goal line.

Following the Try-for-Point(s), play is resumed by a kickoff, with the option of kicking or receiving being exercised by the Field Captain of the team against which the touchdown was scored.

SECTION 4—Field Goal. The three points awarded for a successful field goal are earned by a placekick or a dropkick that clears the crossbar between the opponents' goal posts before it strikes the ground or a player of the kicking team. It is a scrimmage play and a field goal may not be scored on a kickoff.

A ball that clears the crossbar between the uprights, but is blown back over the crossbar, does not score a field goal.

As following a Try-for Point(s), the Field Captain of the team scored against designates which team is to kick off following a successful field goal.

SECTION 5—Safety and Touchback. When the ball becomes dead in an end zone, whether out of bounds or in the possession of a defending player, it is ruled either a touchback (which scores no points) or a safety (two points). The determining factor is the impetus that sent the ball into the end zone.

If a team attacking a goal is responsible, it is a touchback and the defending team takes over the ball on its 20-yard line.

But if the ball becomes dead in an end zone as result of a kick, pass, snap, fumble or run (accidental or intentional) with the ball in possession of the team defending that goal, it is a safety, which scores two points for its opponents.

Following a safety, the defending team (having just yielded two points), must put the ball into play from its own 20-yard line by a free kick, which may be a punt, dropkick or placekick.

Be the Best

CONDUCT OF PLAYERS AND OTHERS.

SECTION 1—Limited Violence. If you bruise easily, football probably is not your competitive sport. The game involves the hurtling together of human bodies, often weighing 250 pounds or more and moving at utmost speed. But this is not wanton violence. Unnecessary roughness, unfair tactics and unsportsmanlike conduct are severely penalized and specified protections are provided for situations in which players are unable to protect themselves adequately. All persons affiliated with the teams are subject to the rules, even if not involved in the game.

SECTION 2—Personal Fouls. A loss of 15 yards, plus disqualification of the offender in flagrant situations, is the penalty for these acts of unnecessary roughness identified as personal fouls:

- a. Kicking, kneeling or striking an opponent with a fist, extended forearm, elbow or locked hands.
- b. Striking an opponent's head, neck or face with the heel, back or side of the open hand.
- c. Tripping or clipping an opponent (except that clipping is not a foul within a specified, immediate area of the scrimmage line).
- d. Piling on, falling on or throwing the body on an opponent after the ball becomes dead.
- e. Tackling a ball carrier when he is clearly out of bounds or throwing a ball carrier to the ground after the ball becomes dead.
- f. Running into an opponent obviously out of the play
- g. Hurdling, or grasping the face mask of an opponent.
- h. Using the helmet or head to maliciously butt an opponent.

SECTION 3—Roughing Kicker or Placekick Holder. The same stiff penalty protects the punter and kick holder from rough treatment as they concentrate on their demanding assignments. However, contact with the kicker is forgiven when a punt or placekick is blocked, since this is attacking the ball rather than the man.

SECTION 4—Interference Fouls. Other applications of the 15-yards, possible-disqualification penalty are for fouls that interfere with orderly game progress and administration:

- a. Interference with the ball or a player by a substitute or any personnel on the field illegally. (When a reasonably assured touchdown play is thus interfered with, the touchdown is awarded.)
- b. Use of abusive or insulting language to officials or players.
- c. Use of words or signals by the defense to disconcert opponents preparing to put the ball in play.
- d. Concealing the ball beneath clothing or substituting anything for the ball.
- e. Failure of a player to return the ball to an official immediately after a score or at any other time.

SECTION 5—Blocking Yes, Holding No. One of the more frequently assessed penalties is the loss of 15 yards for "holding." This is because of the fine line between illegal holding and legal blocking. The latter is using the body to remove an opponent from the path of the play. It becomes holding when an offensive blocker uses a hand or forearm, unless the hand is kept in contact with the blocker's body and below the opponent's shoulders. It also is holding when an offensive player uses his arms to hook, lock, clamp, encircle or lift an opponent. The same restrictions apply to a defensive player only when he is not attempting to get to the ball or ball carrier. Blocking must be an individual effort, i.e., teammates may not grasp one another for interlocked blocking.

SECTION 6—Batting and Kicking. Unlike baseball, batting generally is frowned on in football. In this game, it means striking the ball with the hand or forearm, which is legal only while a forward pass or scrimmage kick is in flight. And even though the game is football, it is illegal to deliberately kick a free ball, forward pass or a ball being held for a placekick by an opponent.

Rule Ten

PENALTY ENFORCEMENT

SECTION 1—Referee Presides. While all football officials are responsible for enforcing the rules, the Referee's role is the dominant one. Figuratively, he is the presiding judge and chief law enforcement officer. He has general supervision over the game and his decisions on matters not specifically assigned to other officials are final.

Before a penalty is enforced, the Referee explains the penalty options or alternatives to the Field Captain of the offended team. A penalty is completed only when it is accepted or declined, or when it is canceled because of offsetting fouls.

SECTION 2—Field Captain Accepts or Declines. The role of the Field Captain is unique in football, the one game in which the automatic assessment of a penalty against the opponents would be to the disadvantage of the offended team that has achieved its objective despite the foul.

A striking example is when a team has completed a touchdown play on which the defenders fouled. In such a situation, the Field Captain's choice is simplicity itself. He declines the penalty, since its assessment would erase the successful play. A more difficult decision would be whether to accept a 5-yard penalty against the opposition (without expending a down) or to decline and retain a 7-yard gain on the play (at cost of a down).

Any penalty may be accepted or declined by the offended team's Field Captain, but a disqualified player must leave the game in any case. If opponents are charged with two or more fouls on the same play, the Referee explains the alternative penalties to the Field Captain, who may then elect only one of them.

Usually no option exists when fouls are committed by both teams on the same play. Such offsetting fouls cancel each other and the down is replayed automatically. However, if the ball changes possession during such a play, the team last gaining possession may decline the offsetting fouls and retain possession, after the penalty for its own transgression is assessed.

SECTION 3—Enforcement Procedures. A Referee's lot is not an easy one, as attested by the complex enforcement procedures spelled out by this section of the Official Football Rules. For the rest of us, fortunately, awareness of these basic principles should be sufficient:

- a. No distance penalty may be more than half the distance to the goal, thus assuring that a score cannot be achieved by a penalty. For example, what would normally be a 15-yard penalty is assessed as only five yards when the enforcement spot is the offending team's 10-yard line, or only a half yard if enforced from the 1-yard line.
- b. If the defensive team fouls during a successful try-for-point(s), the offensive team's Field Captain may either (1) accept the point(s) scored, with the distance of penalty assessed against opponents immediately prior to the ensuing kickoff; or (2) choose to replay the try-for-point(s). The latter option might be exercised if the scoring team should decide to try for two points (from the 1½-yard line) instead of the one point it had made (from the 3-yard line).

SECTION 4—Summary of Penalties. The Official Football Rules book lists a total of 83 penalties (with some cross indexing), among which the most often encountered probably are:

LOSS OF 5 YARDS—Offside, illegal procedure, illegal motion, illegal shift, substitution infraction, delay of game and (incurring also loss of a down) intentionally grounded or illegal forward pass.

LOSS OF 15 YARDS—Personal foul, clipping, roughing the kicker or holder, unsportsmanlike conduct (chiefly non-contact fouls), illegal use of hands and arms, ineligible receiver downfield and (incurring also loss of a down) forward pass illegally touched and offensive forward pass interference (the penalty for defensive forward pass interference awards the ball to the offended team at the spot of the foul).
